You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon develop into nervous prostration. Nature demands sleep, and it is as important as food; it is a part of her building and sustaining process. This period of unconsciousness relaxes the mental and physical strain, and allows nature to restore exhausted vitality.

Dr. Miles' Nervine brings refreshing sleep, because it soothes the irritation and removes the congestion.

It is also a nerve builder; it nourishes and strengthens every nerve in your body, and creates energy in all the organs.

Nothing will give strength and vitality as surely and quickly as Dr. Miles' Nervine. "During the past winter I had two attacks of Lumbago which left me very weak, and in the second attack was so nervous I could not sleep. My wife, after trying all the remedies, went for a doctor. The doctor was out, and a neighbor recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and she bought a bottle. I had not slept for some time, and had terrible pains in my back. After taking a few doses of Nervine the pain was not so severe, and I slept. I am now taking the second bottle, and am very much improved." HENRY M. SMITH, Underhill, Vt.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you. If it fails, he will refund your money.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Look of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonge, Ga.

Here's to The Hired Girl.

God bless the girl who works! She is brave and good and noble. She is not too proud to earn her own living nor ashamed to be caught at her daily task. She smiles at you from behind the counter, desk or printer's case. There is a memory of her sewed up in the adage, climbing struggling, rejoicing. The sight should be an inspiration to us all. It is an honor to know this girl and be worth of her esteem. Young man, lift your hat to her as she passes by. Her hands may be stained by dish washing, sweeping or factory grease, but it is an honest hand and a helping hand. All honor to the brave girl who is not afraid nor ashamed to toil.—Ex.

"At each moment of man's life he is either a king or a slave. He must then live each day as if his whole existence were telescoped down to the single day before him. With no useless regret for the past, no useless worry for the future, he should live that day as if it were his only day—the one day left for him to assert all that is best in him and to conquer all that is worst. Will he be king or slave? The answer rests with him."

Local Items.

We learn that some of our citizens are losing their cattle in the mountains from an overdose of acorns. The crop is the largest for years.

On one acre of ground this year Mr. Haney, of Crumby's district, raised enough cane to make 185 gallons of splendid syrup, which is worth from 30 to 35 cents per gallon. What can a person raise that will profit him more than this?

Judge Evans, since being in office, has collected some tax money that had been returned on the insolvent list. He is going to make an effort to collect more, and if any of those on the list own anything they had better settle their taxes and save cost. Your household goods nor nothing you own is exempt from levy. Your daily labor can be guaranteed. Now take warning and pay up.

Our tax collector will close his books on the 20th of December. Don't forget it. Let every man use his best efforts and not allow his name to go on the insolvent list. No matter how poor you are you can raise your poll tax. Widow women, who are able to work but little and have no help at all, pay their little mite, and you can do the same. Then you can vote in any election and be a free man.

The profitable raising of cotton in Lumpkin county is no experiment. It has already grown and matured in nine districts of the county and can be made profitable in the others. There is an abundance of uncultivated land in this section that will not produce corn profitably but will make good cotton, and we are glad to learn that many farmers, who have never raised any before, are going to plant it next year. The farmer who raises cotton always has all the money he needs in the fall, and some to lay away for rainy days and old age. It is useless for persons to move down the country to do a thing that can be done right here. It costs something to move about, and very often causes dissatisfaction. Some parties who resided down in Jackson county, have sold their land at $20 per acre and come up to Dawson and bought hillside at about $3.00 per acre for the purpose of raising cotton. They know what they are doing. And we have hundreds of acres in Lumpkin county much more suitable for the production of the fleecy staple than that.

One of the New York banks has adopted a most stringent rule against the use of intoxicants by its employees. Every man in the service of the bank has been required to sign an agreement that he will not even enter any place where intoxicants are sold. Two young men who had signed this pledge were summarily dismissed recently for taking a couple of women into a fashionable restaurant after the theater.

Count the days lost to which you can turn and find that it has passed without your doing something of a lasting and beneficial nature, to help your fellowman, to help your town or the community in which you live. That life is too short to count up anything else, and that the fellow who does not always agree with you is not the brake on the wheels of progress.

"Uncle," said the impecunious nephew, "you ought to go and see the new play. You wouldn't find die laughing." The old man more laughing. In a few moments later there could be heard the sound of a scratching pen as he altered his will for the forty-fourth time.

The candidates for governor are making things lively now.

Two hundred bales of cotton were burned in Augusta last week.

How persons can return thanks and play football is a mystery to us.

Last week as soon as the report of the ginners was made cotton jumped up $5 on the bale.

W. D. Upshaw, well known in Dahlonega, will start a new religious paper in Atlanta with the beginning of the new year.

Many of our farmers are preparing to plant cotton next year, which will cause Lumpkin county to be more prosperous in the future.

The Thanksgiving issue of the Commerce News came to us last week containing 24 pages of interesting reading material and profitable advertisements.

All the papers in Georgia using patent outside, had to publish Clark Howell's announcement whether they were for him or not, and the patent outside men got pay for the work.

Under a decision rendered recently by the Supreme court of the State, it is held that municipal officers—police and town marshals—are not authorized to make arrests for municipal offenses without warrants issued by the due process of law, unless the alleged offense is committed in the presence of the officer, or it is fully established that the alleged offender was endeavoring to escape.

There are worse things than railroads in this country, truthfully remarks the Marietta Journal—for instance, blatant political demagogues. Attest: The report of the Southern Railway for the year ending June 30, 1905, sets forth that along its lines there were, within the twelve-months, completed and put in operation 46 textile mills, 24 furniture factories, 77 stone quarries and coal mines, 38 iron industries, 6 tanneries, 13 cotton seed oil plants, 8 fertilizer works, and more than 500 smaller industries—and all this along a line of only 7,000 miles of railway. In addition the record shows 250 plants enlarged and 54 nearing completion.

Elsewhere will be found a reply from City Marshal Walker to our correspondents letter of last week, who seemed to be displeased with everything and everybody. That letter was written for week before last NUGGET, when we had no opposition, but was crowded out until last week, yet the correspondent didn't call it in. As stated in last weeks issue we did not propose to make any pledges to this correspondent nor no one else except to discharge our sworn duty if elected. As to the marshal, the docket and records show that he has made many more arrests for the same length of time than any of the previous marshals, mostly convictions, treating his kinfolks same as others. And we feel confident that the penalty of the liquor case of $20 and cost, inflicted by Mayor Baker was heavy enough for the first offense. Now about the Peruna. We understand that its sale here ceases in a few days and we hope that ye editor, the marshal and mayor here will get a little rest hereafter.

Reply to "For Good Morals."

EDITOR OF NUGGET: I notice an article in the last issue of The Nugget, signed "For Good Morals," in which the writer intimates that the marshal of Dahlonega is not doing his duty toward the suppression of the liquor traffic and houses of ill fame. He says that blockade liquor is being brought here nearly every week and that only one arrest has been made for the same in a long time, and then that man was fined and turned loose. Showing by his own words that the law had been complied with in that case, and that the marshal did his duty in that case. Now, he must remember that the marshal cannot see and hear everything, and if he is so interested in "good morals" and has the information he writes about, and really wants to save the city from drunkenness and sin, why can't he come up like a man and tell the marshal who is bringing this whiskey to town to sell—give him his list of witnesses and let the marshal make a case, and this lover of "good morals" is hereby assured that a case will be made. And if he will give a list of witnesses proving the defendant's guilt, he is further assured that the mayor will give him a heavy penalty. But if "Good Morals" had backbone enough to come and give the marshal all he knew about the subject upon which he writes so eloquently, all he knows would only amount to bare suspicion, merely a dream of his fanatic imagination.

The city council knowing that in his position, the marshal can scarcely catch one of these whiskey sellers in an act, has offered a standing reward of $100 to the man who will furnish the marshal the names, with evidence to convict, of these violators of the law. And if "Good Morals" will give the names of these persons to whom he has reference, to the marshal and his list of witnesses in each case, cases will be made against them, and if upon trial the defendant or defendants are convicted, he will be paid $100 in each case a conviction is had, which will amply pay him for the interest he is taking "for good morals." He says, also, that "Peruna" is being sold as a beverage, in violation of the law. Now we ask him who is this selling it? To whom is he selling it? Give us the names of these guilty parties, and the evidence to convict, and get your reward of $100 in each case, and in addition to the reward, you will be doing something in behalf of "good morals."

"For Good Morals" presumes to know the law of the city, and if he does, he knows well that there is no law against intoxicants in Dahlonega. He knows full well, that the ordinance is against keeping on hand intoxicants for sale as a beverage. And when a man is arraigned and pleads guilty under the ordinance, it is the plain duty of the mayor to fine the defendant. The offense of keeping it for sale—not being a state offense—selling being the offense against the state. And if he knows the law as he presumes to know it, he knows it takes proof to convict one of an offense, and not the mere suspicion of a mind overborne on the subject "for good morals."

As to the level houses, I confess I do not know, but it is not frequent that "Good Morals" knows, and how it is that one so interested "for good morals," knows all about these things I can't tell. In judicial investigations of these matters before grand juries and courts, I have never yet seen a case where the witnesses were not frequenters of these resorts of ill fame. I don't know whether "Good Morals" visits these places or not, but he seems to know all about them. I myself do not go about them except in the discharge of my duty, and when I am about them, of course, they are orderly and correct. Let "For Good Morals" bring up his witnesses and parties and we will apply the light of the law to the facts, and we can then see what has happened to shock his sense of "good morals."

As to prominent persons and officials getting drunk and being disorderly on the streets, we have to say in reply to this, that we have always tried to do our duty and the mayor's docket is a public record that will show it. Cases have been made against all open violators of the law, irrespective of their station in life and without regard to their race or color, and I candidly say that our town is in a better condition, morally, than for many years past. Less drunkenness, less disorder, less violations of the law occur, and everybody seems to be satisfied with the administration of justice here except this excellent gentleman who has laid himself out "for good morals." We do not know who "For Good Morals" is, but he is either an ass, a fanatic or an ignorant fool, who is afraid to do, or act in the interest of good morals, and who thinks it is big and moral-like to shoot off his mouth at nothing.

Respectfully,
G. W. WALKER,
City Marshal.

There are only two men and two imitations of humans taking a stand against us in the mayors race.

Ask Your Own Doctor

If he tells you to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your severe cough or bronchial trouble, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that. But we know what he will say; for doctors have used this cough medicine over 60 years.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for hard colds, bad coughs and influenza. It has done me great good, and I believe it is the best cough medicine in the world for all throat and lung troubles."—E. C. STEART, Albany, Oregon.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufactured by SARGENT & WELLS, HARTFORD, CONN.

Keep the bowels open with one of Ayer's pills at bedtime, just one.

Don't Like Our Opponent.

MR. EDITOR: You say that your opponent is a fine man. Yes, he is so fine and such a strict democrat that he would not vote for some of his kinfolks because they were republicans. This is too fine for me. I have voted for many democratic mayors and aldermen of Dahlonega but none of them had such a political record as this. I have always been a true republican but never believed that my politics were better and "thicker than blood."

REPUBLICAN. The brethren don't seem to work in harmony down at Hawkinsville, Ga. During the quarterly conference there the other night, one of the deacons called the pastor a liar. The deacon had been imbibing too freely, whose name was dropped from the church, was the cause.

As soon as the proper papers are filed for a lency trial in Lumpkin county before Judge G. B. Evans, its efficient ordinary, he writes to the authorities at the asylum, notifying them of the fact and by the time of the trial he has everything ready to send the lunatic off the next day. It is better for the patient and saves the county the expense of keeping them for a week or ten days.

We understand that Billie Signal is going to give us a "big write up" in the paper he is at the head of now, but the circulation of his sheet is so small that but few people will get to see the article unless he gets it out in a circular form, and then not many persons will read it when they find where it is printed. An imitation of a man who is guilty of settling an honest debt by scheduling is liable to say or do anything that is mean, especially one of his caliber, who is corresponding with another woman this early after her third wife's death with the intention of matrimony. In addition to this read what came to us last week from Monroe, Ga., where he worked awhile: "Billie Woodward left here owing a widow lady some $12.50. He went off leaving some old clothing, and after his third wife died wrote to her to send his clothes, as his FOURTH wife had died leaving a SIX MONTHS old baby on his hands and he would send her the board money next June."

Be Sure to Use Only Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

Food made with alum baking powder carries alum to the stomach unchanged. Scientists have positively demonstrated this and that such food is partly indigestible and unhealthful.

The Columbia University, New York, has abolished football. This good example should be followed by all Universities and colleges, as this game is dangerous, expensive and of no profit to either pupil or institution.

College Notes.

Most of our boys like football, but some of them don't like the bruises sustained in the games.

We are all glad to see Dr. Glenn, our efficient president, back from Nashville, Tenn., where he has been attending the Southern educational convention.

Society of changing the time of meeting from Monday morning till Monday night.

There is to be an entertainment in the college chapel next Monday night in the interest of the Graded school library.

All the students and most of the faculty are looking forward with interest to the Christmas holidays.

Our new commandant is the right man in the right place. He knows how to give the boys a good time and yet keep them under perfect control.

Cadet Whitely was expelled last week for falsifying. This shows that the faculty means business in the most training of the students. Prof. Gaillard made a business trip to Atlanta the latter part of last week.

Prof. Barnes has the boys in his care under good control.

Porter Springs News.

Corn shuckings are about over but we liked to have had trouble the other day at one. After it was over the boys went to burn the old mans hat and his son-in-law stepped up and told the boys that the man that burnt his hat would get a whipping. The boys got into a scuffle and tore the young mans hat up, and so far the son-in-law has whipped no one.

Well, times are getting better up here. There was a preacher out the other Sunday buying cattle. And not long ago another man and his wife were out buying wool on Sunday saying that they did not have time on any other day.

NEW COMER.

Closing Out at Cost.

I am closing out my stock of goods at absolute cost except groceries. Come and get my prices on shoes, dry goods, hats, notions, &c., &c. I am going out of business and must close out soon. You will be surprised to see my low prices. I will sell for cash or on time (in quantities of TEN DOLLARS and upwards) twelve months at 8 per cent interest with approved paper. Town property at very low price and on terms to suit purchaser.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Georgia, Lumpkin County. Will be sold before the Court House door, in the town of Dahlonega, on the 1st Tuesday in January next, within the legal hours of sale, to the highest bidder for cash, the following property, to-wit:

Lot of land No. Five Hundred and Seventy-Six, also Five Hundred and Seventy-Eight, also Five Hundred and Seventy-Nine, All lying in the Fifth District and First Section, in said County and State. Each lot containing 40 acres, more or less. Said property levied on as the property of George Corn, to satisfy an execution issued from the Justice's Court of the 80th District, G. M., said county, in favor of W. T. Day, against Cater Corn and George Corn. Levy made and returned to me by E. Carroll, L. C. This November 26th, 1905.

J. M. Davis, Sheriff.

The farmers who planted a big cotton crop this year have the most money now.

We see from the dailies that Rev. W. W. Wardsworth has been suspended from the ministry twelve months by the North Georgia Conference because he stole a kiss from a lady during her husband's absence. This happened at Hartwell. Had it been a local matter we would not have permitted to say anything about it on account of being a candidate.

Notice.

We will sell at our residence, on the 20th of December, to the highest bidder for cash, the following property, to-wit:

200 bushels of corn; 1500 bundles of fodder; shucks and hay; 2 milch cows—one with young calf. One 2-year old steer; 4 head of hogs; 2 wagons; 1 buggy and harness; farming tools; household and kitchen furniture. And other things too numerous to mention. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock. Terms cash.

This 20th of November, 1905. Respectfully,

Meaders' Low Prices.

We will sell any article of merchandise in our store at low a price as any other merchant named, so long as it is not below actual first cost, which is very seldom the case.

Our regular prices, however, are often as low as many special cut prices, and some times even lower.

We guarantee everything we sell to be as represented, full weight and measure. We cheerfully correct any errors we may make (we suppose everybody make one now and then.)

We keep medium and high priced merchandise and in all grades and will try to put the price as low as possible.

Call and we will welcome you gladly.

Mr. W. A. Edge is very sick with fever.

The upper Gainesville mail line now leaves at 12 and arrives at 12:30. This schedule went into effect today.

Mr. Saddle, who has been in charge of the football team here this fall, has finished up for the season and leaves this week.

Don't forget to register so you can participate in the municipal election. The books close on Saturday at 6 p. m., the 9th inst.

Mr. Wharton Anderson, who left Dahlonega a few weeks ago, is now located at Goldfield, Nevada. He has our best wishes for success at his new home.

The caucus spoken of as taking place the other night had no reference to the gentlemen who met for the purpose of attending the meeting of the Masonic Lodge.

At the request of a gentleman residing at Dayton, Ohio, a citizen of Dahlonega shipped him a box of persimmons a few days ago. There are none in that country.

Mrs. M. F. Wheeler left for Anniston, Ala., last Sunday on a visit to her son, Mr. John Wheeler, whose family is quarantined there on account of being sick with scarlet fever.

A petition is being signed by the citizens in the community of New Bridge, asking that the postoffice at that place be re-established. It ought to be done, and we hope that they will succeed.

Mr. E. L. McDonald leaves this week with his family for South Georgia for the purpose of making it their future home provided they can have their health. They have our best wishes.

We regret to learn that some of our farmers are losing their hogs from cholera. They were all getting a good start again in the meat raising and if they lose many it will be very discouraging to them.

Miss Griffin, after being in the military store of Mrs. Strickland at this place, for the last two months, left for her home at College Park last Monday. Miss Griffin made many warm friends while here, all of whom regretted to see her leave.

Rev. D. J. Blackwell, of Gainesville, who has been a patron of The Nugget since 1902, writes as follows, with a check in his letter: "Please continue The Nugget one more year. I find it hard to completely break loose from Dahlonega."

Mr. John H. Moore will leave on a visit to South Georgia just after Christmas. Mr. Moore is so discouraged about the college dormitory move that he may later "pull up stakes" and leave Dahlonega. Should he decide to go, our town will lose her most industrious and progressive citizen.

John A. Beal, of Hightower district, was tried here last Wednesday and found to be a fit subject for the asylum. His trial was fixed to take place some time ago, but before the time arrived he improved some and the matter was postponed. The sheriff left with him for the asylum the next day.

You will see by an official notice elsewhere that Mayor Baker has fixed Wednesday night the 13th inst., at 7:30 o'clock, the time for the mass meeting of the citizens of Dahlonega to meet and nominate a candidate for mayor and four aldermen. None but legal registered voters will be allowed to vote at this meeting.

The happiest lot of children we have had the pleasure of seeing in a long time, was last Saturday when we stepped into the dining room of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Menders and saw their little daughter, Ray, and a number of other little girls around a well filled table, beautifully decorated, eating a birthday dinner with the beautiful little girl, who was eight years old.

THE NUGGET's subscription list continues to swell.

We are indebted to Hon. F. C. Tate for a large United States map.

WANTED.—A car load of mules and horses. J. M. BROOKSHER, Dahlonega, Ga.

By referring to the transfers on the first page, you will observe that there has been a good deal of trading going on in this county.

A three-year-old heifer, solid black, has been at Mr. Hughes Andersons about three weeks. The owner is requested to call and get it.

Under the proper heading will be found the name of Mr. Boyd Gurley for alderman from the 3rd Ward. He has served before and made a good member.

WANTED.—To buy timber and timber lands near the Etowah river and its tributaries, in Lumpkin county.

O. J. LILLY, Attorney, Dahlonega, Ga.

Judge Gaston, of Gainesville, paid this county a flying visit the other day on special business. He didn't come to town, but after eating his lunch about three miles from Dahlonega and attending to what he came for, returned home without coming to see the place of his childhood days.

Mr. Charley Dotson passed through Dahlonega the other day from Murrayville, where he had been to have some cotton ginned. He said the ginners told him that it was much whiter and nicer cotton than they raised down there. Charlie lives only about three miles above Dahlonega.

While passing through Dahlonega the other day, Mr. Abe Woody handed us a dollar to renew his subscription to THE NUGGET. He said that we gave the "republicans the devil" but just let her come. This shows that Mr. Woody is a sensible republican and is willing to give an editor the same right that he enjoys.

Prof. J. W. Boyd preached at the M. E. church last Sunday to a very large and attentive congregation, said by some to be the best sermon they had heard this year. We heard the Professor deliver his first sermon at this church years ago and his effort was as good as many of those delivered by some of much more experience in preaching. This christian gentleman is a kind hearted man, one who is liked by everybody that know him. The Professor tells us he thinks of running for the senate, and if he does he will be hard to beat.

We often see wagons returning from Gainesville loaded with supplies. Merchants, can't you remedy this? If these farmers would buy from you in large quantities like they do in Gainesville, can't you, for the cash, put the price of goods down to such a figure that they will buy here and save them this twenty-five miles trip? Undoubtedly you can buy goods as cheap as the Gainesville merchants do. Then can't you sell at the same price with freight added, for cash? It is better to do this and have something to do than to keep your goods in the store and let all this money go away. Wouldn't it?

Since our report about the management of the town registration books last week, we learn that not only Mr. Smith has failed to comply with the law, but all the rest who have heretofore handled it. No intention to do wrong, but just through ignorance of the law. So you see it is very important for aldermen, as well as mayors, to post themselves better on local laws and matters which is to their interest. Mr. Ben Smith, proposing to bring the book to town for a gentleman to register, said it was not to take any advantage of us, but merely for courtesy to a cripple, and we have no right to disbelieve him, as we have always found him to be a man of his word.

Kerosene oil only 20 cents a gallon at John H. Moores.

The electric lights will be on again about the middle of next week.

A ten-dollar bill stuck to one of he dormitory boy's fingers the other day and he was sent home.

For the next thirty days T. J. Smith & Bro. will give you bargains in ready made clothing and all other goods.

Dr. Glenn will start for South Georgia in a few days in search of more school boys for the spring term of college.

Lost.—One pair gold rimmed spectacles. Reward to finder, E. J. WILLIAMS, Commandant.

Mr. John H. Moore had to take his bed Tuesday afternoon and was threatened with fever for awhile but is getting all right now.

Three parties whose names are on the state and county insolvent list have registered. Did you not know that this is dangerous?

Some of you may try to fool us but you can't. And hereafter we will be guided by the present golden rule—do unto others as they do unto us.

We saw a little 22 pistol in the hands of Capt. Williams the other day, which had been taken away from one of the small students. He was going to express it to the boys' father.

All those who have become of age this year, or will be by the time of the mayors election, or will have been in the town six months by that time are entitled to register and vote. This is the law.

Roy Pirkle was caught in a illicit distillery in White county the other day by Marshal Grizzle and posse.—There were two other parties there at the time the officers made their appearance but both gave leg bail.

Mr. J. R. Lumsford, a young man who is attending the college here, with the intention of following the ministry when his school days end, preached a right interesting sermon at the Baptist church last Sunday night.

The next time either one of those fellows got to electioneering against the editor of this paper ask them if they did not turn against us because we refused to vote allowing one to use the street for private purposes.

FOR RENT.—The Southern Power & Milling Co. has some desirable farms and dwellings for rent, particulars of which can be had by applying to the manager, Mr. Arnold in Dahlonega. Some are located on the Lumpkin-Chestnut and the Turkey Hill properties.

The people of the North may wonder why our citizens don't contribute liberally for the building of a railroad to this place. They do not realize that we are so poor down here. We know of no man here who could spare as much as five hundred dollars out of his business for any kind of an enterprise, matters not how important it is to this country.

Hon. Tom Bell writes that he is not partial to any county about rural mails and says the trouble with the proposed routes in Lumpkin, is either for the want of bridges, on account of bad roads or protests filed. We are told that some of the roads in Hall county, over which the rural mail carriers go, are much worse than the roads of one or two of the proposed routes in this county. He has intimated that there will be no trouble in getting the London route when the Yahoola bridge is raised. Now about the protests. The law has been complied with, by getting the required number of petitioners, and the roads are all right on some of them, if not all. The department, in its rules and regulations, did not mean for the minority to rule and one word from Mr. Bell would fix all this. Why, if this be the case, one man could stop the progress of any line. This won't do.

Bananas at Bruces.

There will be an all-day singing at Damascus next Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. Jones visited Gainesville last week to have some dental work done.

Mr. G. W. Bruce had a very serious attack this week but is much better now.

The Dahlonega football teams were to have played two games in Gainesville yesterday.

Mr. Arch Marlow, of Jackson, was wedded last Sunday to Miss Lizzie Conner, of this county.

Mr. T. L. Roper, of Hiram, Ga., was up this week looking after some land which he owns in this county.

Wm. Blackwell, of Lumpkin county, was bound over here last Wednesday by Com. Baker for illicit distilling.

Mr. J. B. Edwards, of Davis district, says that he means to plant twenty-five acres of his land in cotton next year. Let others do likewise and help bring about more good times in Lumpkin.

James Turner was brought down from White county last Monday by Marshal Grizzle, charged with running an illicit distillery near his home some time ago. He says it belongs to another man and gave a temporary bond until tomorrow to show it.

The following is a list of parties residing in Lumpkin county who have recently been indicted state pensions on the indigent list, to-wit: Henry Davis, Dr. Howard, J. L. Rider, Geo. W. Walker, Sr. Widows: Ann Anderson, Rebecca Bishop, Millie Patton.

Talking about organizing a board of trade or commerce in Dahlonega. If the resolution passes, making all the students go to the dormitory, closing a number of boarding houses, and driving away students and citizens, it will regulate the board of trade.

Thanksgiving exercises were held by the pupils of the graded school at this place last Wednesday, and the many interesting declamations and speeches delivered by the them convinced all present that the principal and assistants are giving them the proper attention.

Last week's session of the North Georgia Conference was very interesting, as usual. J. R. King was appointed to this, the Gainesville District. Mr. Marchant, this year's pastor of the M. E. church at Dahlonega, was sent to Norcross and W. R. Foot comes here. Mr. Foot was the pastor at Dahlonega some twenty-five years ago and pleased the people so well that they are proud to know that he is coming back. J. M. Crow fills the Cleveland Mission and G. T. Chandler the Lonsville Mission. The next session of the conference meets at Milledgeville.

Before Capt. Williams, the present commandant of the students of the N. G. A. College, would agree to come to Dahlonega, he had the assurance of Col. W. P. Price, president of the board of trustees, that he would have full control of the military department and that said board would stick to him in anything it believed would be a benefit to the institution. So Capt. Williams came with this understanding, and after being here awhile has decided that it would be best for the college to rent the Consolidated Hotel for a dormitory and have the students to occupy this and the other dormitory. The rest of the faculty agree with Capt. Williams. So a movement is now on foot to this effect. The had a meeting last week and agreed to rent the house at once, and instructed the faculty to prepare its rules to be submitted for its consideration. But Doctor Glenn says that none of our citizens need be alarmed because none of their boarders will be taken away from them unless they misbehave, that there will be enough students for them and the dormitories too.

Mining Notes.

Bunker Hill Gold Mine has been visited by a couple more gentlemen this week from Kansas City, and they too were pleased.

The Singleton mill started up again on Monday night and Superintendent Jackson hopes to be able to keep it in ore from now on.

We saw about forty-five dollars worth of beautiful nuggets the other day of all shapes and sizes, that came from the Chestnut river, scooped up by the Bunker Hill disced boat.

Mr. Fry tells us that he is getting along splendid with his flume and ditch work on the Briar Patch canal, having it about completed as far up as the Parrish branch, and in a few more days will have it ready to dam up.

In writing to Mr. S. S. Smith, of Garland, Lumpkin county, for further particulars about his copper mine, this is what he says: The copper vein on my lot was discovered, as near as I can learn, about the years 55-57, by Henry Childers, of North Carolina. He (Childers) with but two men helpers, attempted to open, and if possible work it, which efforts failed; as I now judge from the want of mechanical appliances and more labor. The cut they made and the debris and specimen of copper ore, or granite rock containing ore, shows now that it was no child's play. They must evidently have thought it was loaded with gold. This vein of copper or pyrites, also extends south to end of my line, while to the north it runs through my land, and also through lot No. 114, 75 acres adjoining, of which I am 2/3 owner of the mineral. Whether it connects with Mr. Pratt's copper mine I do not know.

The big shaft, on the Arnold-Loud-Mine, owned by the Southern Power & Milling Co. is being rapidly pushed, it being the intention to sink this shaft as far as pay ore develops. It is a double compartment shaft, one side for the miners to enter and leave and in which the pump operates; the other side for the bucket to handle the ores. All the timber is sawed square by the company's own mill on the premises, which is a great convenience beside saving considerable money in the prosecution of the work. The stamp mill is being overhauled preparatory to beating the ores that are being taken out the shaft. Levels are to be run at the proper depth. The manager has just completed a dining room and kitchen on the property, which for completeness and comfort has not been equaled in this country. He is constructing a building for sleeping quarters. It will have attached to it a bath room with modern conveniences. This dwelling will be quite a novelty when completed. It is believed it will be the first of its kind ever built so far south.—The Etowah Mines, controlled by this company, are also working full time. They are working on a rich vein discovered some time ago. This company believes in running full time which is a great advantage to its workmen, and so long as its efficient management is in charge it will continue to prosper. Additional machinery will be installed as fast as possible and the Manager tells us that when this machinery is in service he will operate the mine night and day. He also informs us that he is placing an electric light machine in the Arnold-Loud mill to light up the shaft so work can be done at night as well. This company has a ring of activity about it that we like to see and its success will be a great advantage to this country.

A Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Dahlonega is called to convene at the court house on Wednesday night, the 13th inst., at 7:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for mayor and four aldermen. All who have registered this year, as provided by law, are invited to come and participate. His Dec. 1, 1905.

RUFF. H. BAKER, Mayor.

To the Citizens of Dahlonega.

Having been solicited some time ago to make the race for mayor of Dahlonega we would not consent to run if any body else wanted it. So a few weeks ago, after making inquiry of some and going to see others we could not find a single person who would agree to make the race. Col. Baker had decided that he might run for the senate. Col. Price said that he was too old. Col. Lilly and Capt. Ingersoll said that they wouldn't have it. Merchant Jap Williams stated that he didn't want it, and having heard Mr. J. E. McGee say two or three times that he had been working for the town four years and would have nothing more to do with it, indicating that Dahlonega was in the mire and no one cared to lend a hand to help raise her up. So we did not know of any one else that might be induced to run. This is why we are before you to day. Having served two years as chairman of the street committee and given much of our time in looking after the general interest of the same, just as if we were receiving a hundred dollars per month, all for nothing, we heard of no complaint being made until we opposed a measure allowing one of the aldermen to build a porch on public property intended for a street or sidewalk fixed by law. It was then that we lost some political friends and this influence, together with a few others, some of them preferring aid a far off Chinaman with dollars than to assist a native born citizen with a vote, indeed Mr. McGee to oppose us in this race—a good, nice clever, upright and intelligent citizen, one who does not care but little for the office, but is out just to please our enemies. Mr. McGee was appealed to to run for mayor at another time but he could not be induced to make it and they had to turn up another man. Had he or even any one else signified their intention of wanting the place we would not have been a candidate today.

So both of us are before you. We have been a citizen of Dahlonega all our life—fifty years. Mr. McGee has not been here half of it. Both of us are in business. He is a merchant and we edit a weekly newspaper. Which of us have been the most benefit to the public? Mr. McGee has been selling goods most ever since he has been here, buying his clothes, shoes, hats, sugar, coffee, etc., in Atlanta, Gainesville or some other market beyond, not only the limits of the town but Lumpkin county. While we have spent every week for nine years in talking for our schools, college, mines and everything else that we thought would help our town and county, besides spending every dollar for everything we use except newspaper material, right here in Dahlonega, giving you business men a chance to make a profit on what we buy. Does it help you? If so don't you appreciate it? When any of you either in town or county got burned out, or any other misfortune happens causing you to need aid, do we refuse to give it? Don't we give money for churches and other public institutions? Isn't our columns always open for the benefit of any public enterprise? When you want a notice of a public entertainment, public meeting of any political party, don't you know where to come? You don't go to Mr. McGee, do you? When you want to return thanks to the citizens for their attention during the sickness and death of a relative, don't we always publish it free of charge? We have written hundreds of columns about the schools and college and said many nice things about the trustees, faculty and school teachers. Are they of no benefit to you? When a mechanic, mining superintendent or painter get a job, we note it. Is that not an advertisement for you? We mention the efficient manner in which postmasters, county, government and other officials discharge their duties. Do you not appreciate nothing that we have done for you, the town or community? Now, study over the matter and see if asking this small favor of you can be granted, or has all our efforts in behalf of Dahlonega been in vain?

Respectfully,
W. B. TOWNSEND

Six Million People are Dependent on the Railroad for a Living.

Representatives of the million and a quarter railway employes in the United States called on President Roosevelt recently and stated their reasons for their opposition to having transportation rates fixed by the Federal Government.

Mr. W. W. Clark, head of the order of Railway Conductors, was Chairman of the Committee. He says that the railway employes and those dependent on them number about six million people in this country. In addition there are fully four million more in the lumber, iron, steel and other manufacturing industries who get a large part of their wages from money paid by the railroads for materials and supplies which they have to buy.

In round numbers, the wages of the railway employes amount to $500,000,000 a year.

"Why is it proposed to have the government fix the price at which the railroads must sell their service? The government might just as well fix the maximum prices on beef, pork, oil, clothing, butter and eggs, in fact, everything which everyone has to buy every day; and it seems to us that such a step would be infinitely more reasonable than this proposed move upon the railroad rates, because all of these and other commodities have advanced by leaps and bounds, and by methods which we all agree would bear investigation, while the general average of railway freight rates have steadily decreased from two cents per ton per mile in 1870, down to three-fourths of one cent per ton per mile today, and during the past ten years the railroad companies have granted substantial wage concessions to their employes and also ameliorated labor conditions.

"That the railroads of the country have been enabled to reduce rates, and at the same time advance wages and spend large sums in the physical improvements of their properties, is due to the reduction of elimination of grades, curves, etc., doubled capacities of cars, immensely increased hauling power of locomotives and superior character of general service rendered, showing in instances an increase of 200 per cent in train tonnage, and we believe that, in this increase of earning power and economical management the limit has been reached, therefore, we believe that we take a fair and just view of the situation when we claim that no national legislation should be adopted which shall tend in any degree to interfere with or interrupt the present or future prosperity of the railroad employes in this country."

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonga, Ga.

Jim Walker, colored, the assailant of Mrs. Moore in Atlanta, will be hanged today.

Atlanta has already commenced working for her great exposition which is fixed for 1910. When the progressive citizens of that thriving city undertake to do a thing they generally succeed.

That Indiana boy that chased a negro and then reported that he committed suicide, is ahead of any mob the South has had. It is said that the negro shot himself many times.—Columbus Enquirer-Sun.

We are requested to state that Mr. Marcus L. Seabolt will be a candidate for tax collector of Lumpkin county, and his announcement will appear in due time.

Hartwell church has again endorsed Mr. Wardsworth, the kissing preacher. Despite the action of the conference in suspending him the members believe him innocent.

We are told that the married man who carried off a young girl from this county a short time ago, between midnight and day and kept her away two or three days, expects to be here on the night of the 13th to take a big stand against the editor of this paper for mayor. He favors "good morals" of course.

A telegram from Valosta says that the death sentence was again imposed upon J. G. Rawlings and his two sons, Milton and Jesse, and the negro, Alf. Moore, all charged with the murder of the Carter children on June 13. The day of execution was fixed for January 6. The elder Rawlings protested the innocence of his sons, and they also declared their innocence. The negro, on whose evidence the others were convicted, declared that he had told the truth. That he killed nobody, but was with the boys when the crime was committed. Len Rawlings, another of the boys, goes to the penitentiary for life.

To Christian Billie Signal, the moral modifier, don't waste any time in praying for us, because you think we ought to be in the changing or penitentiary. You have served the devil so long that your windy prayers would be more apt to go in his direction and get us into trouble sure enough. If you wish to do good, learn to tell the truth, settle off that Dr. Jones schedule debt, tear up that will to that property you had your last wife to make. It will take all that bad taste out of your mouth, maybe. Else take a dose of vermifuge.

The new rule of the department of internal revenue at Washington relative to the manufacture and sale of certain alcoholic compounds advertised and sold under a variety of names will not go into effect December 31, as was announced some time ago. The change in the date is made so as to prevent losses to manufacturers and merchants. The new ruling provides that the manufacturers and dealers who handle such compounds will be subject to the special tax under the federal statutes. According to the last circular, it will become effective against manufacturers on January 1, and concerning retail dealers on the 1st of April. The government is now conducting analyses of all such compounds as contain large quantities of alcohol in order to determine whether or not the manufacturers will be subjected to the special tax.

A Few More Words.

Our two years term as alderman of Dahlonega expires in a few more weeks and we have tried to serve all classes to the best of our ability. For many years up to the time that we were elected poor boys and men who were unable to raise the money to pay their street taxes were compelled to work six days each year—50 cents a day—to comply with the law. At the first meeting after being qualified, we made a move and it carried, to reduce street work to four days thus saving these poor people two days each year of many hard licks. Then one night upon being informed by alderman Vickery that a plank on Main Street foot bridge was broken, leaving a big dangerous hole, we did not take time to hunt up the marshal but secured the material and went and fixed it temporarily free of charge upon ourselves for fear that some persons leg might get broke, maybe costing the town several thousand dollars, which would have come out of the monied mens pockets. At another time finding a live electric wire down in the streets we went and borrowed a lantern and hung it up to put any one who might drive by on their guard of the danger. The owners of the plant mostly live hundreds of miles away, and who knows but what they saved some mans life and the company thousands of dollars? We give you this information to show you that we have guarded the interests of all classes and looked after their property whether the owners lived here or not. We have never missed a single meeting in the two years and never tried to shirk a single duty but stood as one of the towns agents to do what we believed to be just and right and if we failed we have heard of no complaint except by some likely personally interested. Last summer when a move was made to practically drive the hogs from the lots out of town we fought it. Yes, we did vote for students who had violated the law to be tried and if found guilty to be punished like any other mischievous boys. We didn't believe in those having no money to pay fines, to have to work on the streets from thirty to sixty days and students be let off with only a lecture. Had the law excused students it would have been all right with us.

A few courts ago when a true bill was returned by the grand jury against a student for carrying a pistol, Col. Charters as solicitor general, prepared the bill, and our opponent was on the jury that returned it. Now, isn't there just as much sense in falling out with them as with us?

We are not prejudiced to any student, for they are all our friends and a number of them our patrons.

W. B. TOWNSEND.

Two Russian battleships were blown up last week, showing that there is much bad blood in that country.

Rev. D. J. Blackwell, of Gainesville, has accepted the call from the Presbyterian church at Commerce and will soon make that place his home.

The mayor's race in Dahlonega will soon be over. Our opponent, Mr. McGee, has treated us very nicely and if there is any unkind feelings between us we do not know it.

Wonder if Clark Howells friends here, who are opposing us for mayor because we touch up members of the church when they do wrong, will fall out with him and vote against him for governor because his paper told about the preacher being suspended from the ministry twelve months on account of stealing a kiss from a respectable married lady and she reported him for it?

The Taking Cold Habit

The old cold goes; a new one quickly comes. It's the story of a weak throat, weak lungs, a tendency to consumption. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up the taking-cold habit. It strengthens, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about it.

"I had a terrible cold, and nothing relieved me. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it promptly broke up my cold, stopped my cough, and made every part of my body feel wonderful work for me."—MRS. J. F. Lutz, Toledo, Ohio.

The gentleman is mistaken about the editor of THE NUGGET ever writing any thing about a christian that was detrimental to his character. A member of the church who makes it a business to go round and tell unreasonable original tales and talking about THE NUGGET is not a christian. We are told by the bible "to judge not that we be not judged." Then it says that "we MUST judge a tree by its fruit." This is a very easy matter to do in some instances. If we don't prove what we say we may be whipped and can be lashed. Now the deacon that we have heretofore referred to. He has said every thing about us that a careless hander of the truth could say. It would make a big book. Now do you mean to say that we must not defend ourselves because he is a member of the church? If you do you will get mistaken. No longer than last week a man told us that this deacon cursed in his presence. And a member of the church against whom charges had been preferred, also told us that this same man who was elected to keep the members straight, called on him and told him to "hatch up some kind of a little lie to tell him so he could report it to the church and it would be all right." But the reported backslider being more of a christian than the deacon, replied that he would make his own report. Now, is this what you call a christian? Do you want the proof? Little John Sissum, a boy, was brought up to the chalk line for some remarks he made. Now why not investigate the conduct of this official who ought to be a guide to heaven?

United States Senator Burton, of Missouri, has been sentenced to six months in jail and to pay a fine of $2,500 as the penalty for conviction on the indictment, charging that he had acted in the capacity of a paid attorney in behalf of the Rialto Grain and Securities Co. of St. Louis before the postoffice department to prevent the issuance of a fraud order.

Hon. Thomas M. Bell, of the Ninth, assumed his duties in Congress last Monday. Among other things of generally interest he wishes to accomplish, is to repeal the national bankrupt law, have free delivery carrier's pay increased from $60 to $75 per month and relieve retail merchants of the $25 tax they now have to pay for the sale of leaf tobacco, and have a government building erected at Gainesville to cost $100,000.

A Cream of Tartar Powder, free from alum or other phosphatic acid.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

The state troops will be supplied with new overcoats, numbering 4,000.

Cotton advanced to more than $7.00 a bale this week, caused by the government report.

We are requested to say that Mr. W. V. Healan, of Hightower district, expects to make the race for tax collector, who will have something more to say about it in the future.

The gallows upon which a number of persons have been sent to death in Fulton county, is located on the 5th floor of the tower of Fulton's jail, much higher than some of those hanged will ever get any more.

On last Friday night, while a train bearing President Roosevelt, was making its way between Princeton to Washington, some unknown person threw a heavy iron plumb bob through one of the windows of the car.

A certain man, who has a wife and a sweetheart too, a regular moral "modifier," is taking a stand against us, who we learn, proposes to take a jug of liquor later on and turn all the negroes and a portion of the poor whites against us for mayor.

Last week, while Thomas Tynor was finishing up a well, down near Commerce, Ga., he asked for a drink of water. A jug was filled with water and started down by a rope. The handle broke and the jug fell, striking Mr. Tynor on the back of the head killing him.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination on January 3, 1906, to secure eligibles from which to make certification to fill a vacancy in the position of physical chemist, Bureau of Weights and Measures, Manila, Philippine Island. For application form, apply to U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. The salary is $2,250 per annum.

The famous Ducktown case comes up before the United States Supreme court today in Washington City. Attorney General Hart, of Georgia is there. The principal point to be decided on hinges on the question or jurisdiction. The first issue to be tested will be as to whether the Tennessee company should not be stopped from operating, on the ground of the widespread damage being done. This they will fight on the issue of jurisdiction in this state over their plant in Tennessee.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than thirty years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

WANTED.—Energetic men to write Live Stock Insurance. Best contract offered.

ADDRESS: Georgia Live Stock Insurance Company, Tifton, Ga.

Georgia, Lumpkin County.

Notice is hereby given that after four weeks publication of this notice, pursuant to the provisions of sec. 2336 of the Civil Code of Georgia, I will on the 6th day of January, 1906, at 12 o'clock, M., at Chambers at Cleveland, White county, Georgia, make application to his Honor J. J. Kinsey, Judge of the Superior court of said county, for an order granting to me leave to sell, at private sale, lot of land number 162 One Hundred and Sixty-Two, lying in the Eleventh District of originally Hall, but now Lumpkin county, Georgia, as the property of John Fields, lunatic, for the purpose of re-investment. The reason therefor being to reinvest, the proceeds of said sale in interest bearing securities which will bring to the estate of said John Fields a larger income than that produced by said land. This December 6th, 1905.

There is one sure enough christian gentleman taking a little stand and asking persons to vote against us. Suppose some of you men were to ask him to vote your way. What would he say?

The football for the season has ended and this is the result: Deaths 14, partially paralyzed 1, eyes gouged out 1, intestines ruptured 2, backs broken 1, skulls fractured 3, arms broken 4, legs broken 7, hands broken 3, shoulders dislocated 7, noses broken 4, ribs broken 11, collarbones broken 7, jaws broken 1, fingers broken 4, shoulders broken 2, hips dislocated 4, thigh-bones broken 1, concussion of brain 4.

A Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Dahlonega is called to convene at the court house on Wednesday night, the 13th inst., at 7:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for mayor and four aldermen. All who have registered this year, as provided by law, are invited to come and participate. This Dec. 1, 1905.

RUFFE. H. BAKER, Mayor.

I will sell at public sale on the 18th inst., my household goods, blacksmith and carpenters tools. Sale to begin about 10 o'clock a. m. J. E. ANDERSON, Dahlonega, Ga.

Meaders' Low Prices.

We will sell any article of merchandise in our store at as low a price as any other merchant named, so long as it is not below actual first cost, which is very seldom the case.

Our regular prices, however, are often as low as many special cut prices, and some times even lower. We guarantee everything we sell to be as represented, full weight and measure. We cheerfully correct any errors we may make (we suppose everybody make one now and then.)

We keep medium and high priced merchandise and in all grades and will try to put the price as low as possible.

Call and we will welcome you gladly.

Local News.

Kerosene oil can also be had at G. D. Bruce for 20 cents per gallon.

Another cold wave struck us this week, the coldest of the season.

Mr. Paul Castleberry has gone to Washington, Wilks county, to accept a job.

Mr. M. G. Head left for Walton county yesterday where he goes to sell goods.

Mr. T. J. Smith will have his new store on Clarksville street completed in a few weeks.

Tom Bell has already commenced sending out government seeds to both men and women.

Eggs are retailing at 25 cents per dozen here now. They will be too high by Christmas for egg nog purposes.

Col. H. P. Farrow, of Porter Springs, killed hogs the other day and put away 3,308 pounds of meat.

Hardy Reese, who got full enough of the overjoyful to interfere with caddis Crawford, the other night was fined two and cost.

We have been compelled to change Mr. Eldridge's paper from Aurora to Dahlonega, so he could get it regularly. What's the matter down there?

Prof. C. W. Davis, who has been off since June enlightening himself on agricultural matters, returned last Wednesday. His family came with him.

We are going to revise our mailing list again, and if your time has expired and you wish to continue reading The Nugget, send in the money at once.

No sheriffs sales last first Tuesday and none for next month. This alone shows that our citizens are prospering and none should complain of hard times.

Mr. Ashley is now connected with some business affairs in Rabun county. The gentleman is a great promoter and never fails to interest capitalists in any thing he undertakes.

We are requested to state that Rev. C. I. Stancy, of Elberton, Ga., will preach at the Presbyterian church in Dahlonega next Sunday. Mr. Stancy was 10 years in Y. M. C. A. work.

Mr. J. M. Brooksher expects to leave for South Georgia the 12th, with a fine drove of mules for sale. Mr. Brooksher has been engaged in this business only a few years but has met with success.

Thanksgiving Day in Dahlonega was not observed as much as usual. No stores were closed. Some of the preachers went fishing, some of the professors hunting and the school boys ball playing.

Messrs. B. R. and R. C. Mendenhall left last Monday for Tennessee, where they go to buy another lot of mules to ship to South Georgia. They sold $1,080 worth out of the last drove shipped, in about a week, mostly for cash.

Dr. Glenn left last Sunday for South Georgia to "drum" up more students for the N. G. A. College. He is one of the young men from that country would come and stay in the mountains while it would be quite a treat to them.

Mr. Stearns, a young man who has been attending college here going on two years, left for his home last Tuesday at Nelson, Ga., to accept a position. Mr. Stearns is a nice young man, who always conducted himself as a gentleman while here, and has our best wishes for his success.

Mr. W. W. Crison, who is at work on the power line from Dunlap Shoals to Atlanta, was up last Saturday, who reported that they were getting along splendid with their work in putting up the towers for the wires. His headquarters is now at Duluth. His wife and sister-in-law returned with him for a few days.

We understand that Col. Bryson has made up his mind to move to South Georgia in a short while.

It seems that several of the citizens of Lumpkin county, have caught the South Georgia fever.

The most rain that we have had in this section for many months fell here last Saturday and at night.

If you desire more money to be brought into this country work for the establishment of rural mails for Lumpkin county.

Mr. John E. Anderson, who has been running a blacksmith shop in Dahlonega for some time, is fixing to sell out and will move to Walton county.

Mr. John Montgomery, who has been a citizen of Lumpkin county all his life, has quit the mountains and moved to Jackson county. He passed through Dahlonega on his way last Friday.

Samuel Goodlock, col., has been appointed to take charge of the Methodist church of his color here. We hope that Sam will have better luck in building up this church than the pastor just gone.

Prof. Ash, the principal of the public school here, informs us that he has now 174 pupils on the roll. This institution is doing a great good and the people of Dahlonega feel proud of it as well as its teachers.

Mr. J. M. Brooksher has traded for the M. G. Head lot, where the hotel was destroyed by fire last Christmas, with the expectation of putting up a business house on the same. Mr. Head will soon move to South Georgia.

Mr. R. C. Wood, after being in this country for some time, has gone to his Florida home at DeFuniak Springs, to spend the winter. He is a fine old gentleman and we wish him a pleasant trip and a safe return to the mountains next spring.

Christian Billie Signal, who was blackballed by the Printers' Union about Rome, Ga., began last week to try to organize the churches here against us. But there is no member of the church going to be led astray by an agent of the devil. If so, churches would soon be a thing of the past.

On Thursday of last week the first Dahlonega football team defeated Leon's Grove eleven down at Gainesville's park by 50 to 0, and the second team here played against the high school there and made 54 to 0. None of our boys got hurt, but one in each of the other teams were knocked out, but still they were some one's boys.

Well! well! From what we learn, soon after the mass meeting in Dahlonega, there will be a church trial, on account of one of the Baptist members, who has made such a strong fight against us, handling the truth so carelessly that he had, or did, let an oath slip. This is worse than a country editor. We haven't sworn an oath about the race. It is very unfortunate for any church to have such members, because it brings about embarrassment to the Christians and injures the cause.

We close our columns on our correspondent, "For Good Moral," this week, because we think enough has already been said in the paper. We have given him and Marshal Walker both space enough to discuss the matter. Neither is Mr. Walker or Col. Baker in the mayor or alderman's race, and the columns of a newspaper is not the place to prefer charges against a marshal unless the city council was to refuse to act and do its duty. If "For Good Moral" wants the marshal punished he should go before the city council with his evidence and we will assure him that it will investigate the matter. In fact, one of these charges against the marshal has already been investigated by the body, which was explained satisfactorily to each member by him, and it may be that the other charges can be.

Some complain about the write ups this editor gives them. No man should be ashamed of his record who is doing right.

Mr. Craig R. Arnold, president of the Southern Power & Milling Co., left for a business trip to the North last Friday, expecting to be gone two weeks.

It was pretty early on Friday last to begin treating on liquor in the mayors election but nevertheless one of our political enemies was handling a well filled bottle of corn juice right freely.

On our first page will be found a letter from Mr. Wharton Anderson, who is now at Goldfield, Nevada. He tells of many interesting things about the mines and country. Hope he will let us hear from him often.

FOR RENT.—The Southern Power & Milling Co. has some desirable farms and dwellings for rent, particulars of which can be had by applying to the manager, Mr. Arnold in Dahlonega. Some are located on the Lumpkin-Chestate and the Turkey Hill properties.

The town's registration book closes next Saturday night. If you fail to register, you will not get to take a part in the mass meeting, which convenes on Wednesday night the 13th inst. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for mayor and four aldermen.

Dr. Glenn, the wide awake president of the N. G. A. College, showed us a check for a thousand dollars last week, which was made to this institution by the Peabody Fund. The Doctor is all the time at work for the college and he generally succeeds in what he undertakes.

You will observe by looking under the proper heading this week the announcement of Mr. Goodman McGuire as a suitable person to represent the town from the Third Ward. Mr. McGuire has served the people of Dahlonega both as mayor and alderman and discharged his duties.

A gentleman wrote to a member of the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College the other day, desiring to know if there was any chance to rent a large hall for a billiard saloon. We had one here once. It was a small room, with but one table, but plenty large to break the proprietor up, who is now old and still in a penniless condition.

We hope to see the day when football will be abolished by the N. G. A. College. It is not only dangerous, but our notion is, it injures the institution, because there are parents who do not wish their sons to engage in it. This we learn was clearly demonstrated during the game in Atlanta, when we are told that some of the Dahlonega boys gave the reporters wrong names in order to keep their fathers from knowing it. But when one gets hurt it can't be kept a secret from the old folks. For three months a man has been paid one hundred dollars per month to train the boys in this game—learning them how to get hurt and maybe some one killed. This money could have been used to a better advantage and the trustees will see it when it is too late—when some boy either gets killed or crippled for life. There are better and safer ways for school boys to develop the muscle, and at something that will be of some benefit in after years. It is a loss of time that ought not to be allowed. Now during the games last week, in Gainesville, there were no college exercises the next day, and not only young men, but ladies, who care nothing about the game and came here for an education, were forced to be idle. Why, a young man who belongs to one of the teams, remarked the other day that "no one but a fool would belong to it." But he was in it just because it had been adopted by our college. We say blot it out of existence now before some one gets killed.

There will be no paper issued from this office on Christmas week.

The mercury has been playing about number fifteen a portion of the week in Dahlonega.

Remember that next Wednesday night's mass meeting decides the mayor's election. So come out.

Mr. Henley Wimpy is going to move to Dahlonega and occupy the Gaddis house, just across the street from H. D. Gurley's store.

Mr. Stephen Rice and his son, Gordon, have turned out several number one new wagons from their shop here this year, which found ready sale.

Rev. C. P. Marchman and his wife left for Norcross yesterday. They have made many friends during their stay in Dahlonega, all of whom regretted to see them go.

There is a lad in Dahlonega furnishing another person with liquor, who is selling it at fifty cents a pint and at the same time electioneering against us for mayor. This is wrong, because the price is entirely too high.

U. S. Deputy Collector Crockett has been here this week. He didn't stay in Dahlonega all the time, but paid some of the blockaders of the mountains a special visit. It has been very cold for such visits this week, causing it to be unpleasant on both sides.

On the 12th inst., Mr. Henley Wimpy, residing about two miles from Dahlonega, will have a public sale, beginning at 10 o'clock, consisting of farming tools, hogs, cattle, wagon, buggy, two sets harness, fodder, corn, shucks, etc. Be sure to attend if you need any of these things.

Capt. E. P. Berry, who is well known in these parts by some of our citizens, committed suicide a few days ago at Vancouver, who left his property to his wife and mother. Capt. Berry was a grand son of Rev. Josiah Woody. The deceased got to gambling, using the governments money in some way and he couldn't stand and "face the music."

A committee of little children are soliciting contributions now for a Christmas tree at the Baptist church. We are told that the Methodist will also have one. This is right. It will encourage children to attend Sunday School more than anything else that can be done. We don't care what you give them at home they enjoy a Christmas tree the best.

Nine years ago last Monday we commenced the publication of THE NUGGET in Dahlonega, first leasing it, beginning with only two dollars and fifty cents. Now we own the plant, are receiving a large patronage and owe no one a single cent, and have some surplus money. Others had completely failed with this paper, but let us tell you, it required work and energy to get it properly before the people, if we do say it ourselves.

Last Sunday when the hack, bringing Misses Sallie Gaillard and Francis Stanton from Gainesville to Dahlonega, reached Yahoola creek on the Neisler Ford road, the bridge was covered with water and appeared to be gone. The young ladies were put across the stream in a boat and made the remainder of the way a foot. But the bridge is still there. It is only a few inches from the water in its normal condition and only serves its purpose in dry weather.

The city council met in monthly session last Monday night and transacted such business as came before it, being but very little. The marshal's report was received, showing that he had collected the amounts on the following funds, to-wit: Street tax, $15.00; fines, $5.00; sanitary, $9.75; general taxes, $1.11. Total, $24.86. Amount paid in work, $3.00. The petition of Alderman T. J. Smith to build a porch on the side walk was refused, as the clerk didn't allow it unless all the citizens on the opposite side petitioned the body for it.

Mr. James Tate has been down in Jackson county on a visit.

The Masonic fraternity had an oyster supper at Hall's Villa Tuesday night.

The rules of the college faculty about the dormitory have not been adopted yet.

The lands of Geo. Chapman, deceased, were bought by Judge Evans for $54.64.

The T. H. Parrish property was bid off last Tuesday by Mr. Robert Parrish for $120.

Mr. George Marlow came up this week from Gainesville and spent a day or two in Dahlonega.

Mr. J. A. McDougald, of this county, has moved to Pine Log, Ga. THE NUGGET will find his home.

The price of THE NUGGET is as follows: Three months 30 cents. Six months 50. Twelve $1.00. Cheap and not going for any less money.

The property of John Tate, deceased, sold here last Tuesday at administrators sale, lying both in Union and Lumpkin, was bought by his widow.

Mr. Miller Davis, after an absence of several months in the Indian Territory, returned to his home in this county last Monday enjoying good health.

Mr. John Redmond has sold out his farm in the eastern portion of the county to Mr. Frank Whelchel, who resides at Shallow Ford, and will move to other parts.

Collector Crockett and Marshal Grizzle destroyed two illicit distilleries this week. One in White and the other on the head waters of the Chestatee river, Lumpkin county.

Mr. D. T. Simmons, an old Lumpkin county citizen who has been in Oklahoma for several years, sent us a dollar for THE NUGGET last week with instructions to keep it coming.

W. P. Prices large stock of Christmas goods will be on exhibition at his store next Monday, where Santa Claus has made ample arrangements to supply all the children with most every kind of a present for Christmas.

Most of our readers will remember that some months ago a negro and two white men were fined by the mayor for being intoxicated—the first two and cost and both the latter were each fined one and cost—total $16.00. That liquor was furnished by Billie Signal. Yet he is advising church members what to do.

New Masonic Officers.

The following is a list of the officers elected here last Tuesday night:

H. D. Gurley, W. M.
E. B. Vickery, S. W.
J. H. Moore, J. W.
E. W. Strickland, Treas.
M. J. Williams, Sec'y.
J. W. Boyd, Chap.
G. McGuire, Tyler.
W. P. Price, Jr., and W. H. Jones, Trustees.
R. H. Baker, S. W.
G. G. Evans, J. D.
W. H. Jones, J. S.
W. P. Price, Jr., S. S.

College Notes.

President Glenn is off on a three weeks visit to South Georgia. We don't like to give him up at all, but since he has gone in the interest of the college we do not complain.

We commend our football teams for the many manner in which they treated the defeated teams in Gainesville last week.

We regretted last week to see Prof. Saddle, our efficient football coach, leave for South Carolina. He has given perfect satisfaction, and carries with him the best wishes of all.

Capt. Williams grows in popular favor with both faculty and students.

There is nothing cheap about the N. G. A. College except the expense of attendance.

Mining Notes.

The water is being pumped out of the Lockhart shaft preparatory for work to be resumed in it again.

The owners of the Castleberry property are now engaged in installing the machinery to work the mine on a large scale.

The managers of the Briar Patch mine will be here in a few days and it is expected that they will rush the big canal to completion.

Mr. C. F. McAfee made twenty-eight pennyweights of gold out of four two-horse loads of ore last week, taken from the McAfee-Lind mine.

Mr. Wash Jenkins has not a lot of fine ore already at the mill, taken from the vein on the Findley ridge, believed to be worth from eight to ten dollars per ton.

The president of the Consolidated Co., and Mr. Breyman of the Standard are expected here soon, who will decide upon what kind of power will be used to work the Barlow, whether by electrical or by water.

For the month of November Moose and McDonald, with their lift on the Columbia property, made 228 pennyweights of gold, a portion of it being a nice lot of nuggets, the largest weighing over three pennyweights.

The Bunker Hill property is being visited this week by a large number of men from Western states. Enough development work has already been done to more than prove that this mine is a winner, and the company proposes to start work at once on the canal that will convey the water on Cain creek to a point where it can be used to an advantage in working the placer and vein matter on Cain creek and Bunker Hill.

The dredge boat on the river is running on full time notwithstanding the severe weather that we are now experiencing, and if the management continues to display the same amount of energy as heretofore in pushing the interests of the Company, the stockholders will be rewarded.

Mr. S. S. Smith speaks interestingly of the iron vein in the eastern portion of Lumpkin county this week as follows: In the continuance of the iron vein southwest of my place, lot 120, I would state that my iron vein, passes, in my belief, through all the lands southwest of half and breaks out upon the Turkey Hill mine. The latter I know, as I, while attempting to open Turkey Hill for a sale many years ago I saw the iron vein and examined it personally, and so reported it to Mr. McClendon, who sold the mine to Messrs. Pratt, Thurston and Mr. Packard afterwards buying it.

How much further it goes southwest I do not know of my own knowledge but I presume it and the copper mine continue southward on its regular course. That the iron continues northeast on half east I do not know but I have been informed by parties who should know, and whom I believe are reliable, that it crosses the Chestatee river at the Big Shoals, and the supposition with me is that it continues on through White county as I have often heard of the black vein in that county.

SELLING OUT.—On Friday, the 22nd inst., I will sell my household and kitchen furniture, consisting of roughness, hogs, cattle, mules, wagon, buggy and harness for same. If you wish to buy something that is profitable, now is your time.

J. H. REDMOND.

Notice.
We will sell at our residence, on the 20th of December, to the highest bidder for cash, the following property, to-wit:

200 bundles of corn; 1500 bundles of fodder; shucks and hay; 2 milch cows—one with young calf. One 2-year old steer; 4 head of hogs; 2 wagons; 1 buggy and harness; farming tools; household and kitchen furniture. And other things too numerous to mention. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock.

Terms cash.
This 20th of November, 1905.
Respectfully,
HUTCHESON BROS.

THE WORLD WATCHES

All Countries are Interested in the Action of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Great interest is being shown here in an article which appeared in a recent issue of the London STATIST. This paper is the most ably edited financial journal in the world, and everywhere is regarded as high authority.

The Statist says that all the world is interested in the action to be taken by the coming Congress on the subject of railroads. Legislation which helps the prosperity of the United States, benefits all the world, says the journal, and the reverse is true. It cites the Sherman Purchase bill of 1890 as legislation which hurt the industries and practically all lines of business in this country and Europe, while the adoption of the Single Gold standard was followed by the greatest era of prosperity ever seen. If Congress gives the Inter-State Commerce Commission power to fix railway rates, not only the railroads but all business interests will regret it, says the Statist, because the development of the country, the growth of manufactures and the prosperity of the agriculturalists will be retarded.

England has government control of rates and the rates have not been changed in twenty-five years, while in the United States they are only a third of what they were in 1880.

The railway industry does not differ in any material degree from other industries, the Statist declares.

"Its prosperity is governed by the prosperity of the country and of the traders it serves, and railway presidents and directors have realized that they are bound to charge rates which assist trade and commerce to expand. The railway industry has probably done as much as, or even more than, other industries towards building up the country's welfare; and the enlightened policy which has animated those who have controlled the railway industry has brought advantage and wealth to the country which cannot well be measured."

The article goes on to say that judging from the past history of railroads, it does not seem likely that they will make rates which will hamper trade and prevent its expansion. Every railway manager knows that the prosperity of his company depends on its ability to carry the largest possible quantity of traffic at the lowest possible cost.

As to the charge that the railway stocks are watered, the Statist says it was often necessary for the companies to give away stocks as a bonus to induce people to buy the bonds from which the money was derived to build and equip the lines. The value of these stocks has been more than made good by the money since spent on the properties in reconstruction and improvements.

Rates have steadily dropped for the last quarter of a century. While rates have been greatly reduced, the roads have only been able to increase their earnings by increasing their train load and economizing in every other way they know.

For Aldermen.

MR. EDITOR:
As there will be two vacancies on the board of aldermen next year in the 1st Ward, I desire to suggest the name of W. J. Hightower as a suitable person to fill one of them. VOTER.

MR. EDITOR:
Please allow us space in your valuable paper to suggest G. H. McGuire, T. S. Littlefield and W. H. C. Tate as suitable men as aldermen to fill the three vacancies that will occur in the city council of Dahlonega next year. CITIZENS.

MR. EDITOR:
Please allow me to suggest the name of Steven Rice for alderman of the 2nd Ward. He is a good sober man who will have an eye to the towns interest. CITIZEN.

MR. EDITOR:
Please allow me space in your paper to suggest the name of Mr. Boyd Gurley as a suitable man for alderman from the Third Ward. He will represent the interest of all classes. VOTER.

MR. EDITOR:
It may seem to some to be a little too late, yet we are taught that it is never too late to do good so as I understand that Mr. Tate is no candidate for alderman from the 3rd Ward and Mr. Boyd Gurley cares nothing about the place, allow me to suggest the name of Mr. Goodman McGuire. He is not only a christian gentleman but a business gentleman and would fill the place to the entire satisfaction of all. TOWN VOTER.

Periodic Pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a most remarkable remedy for the relief of periodic pains, backache, nervous or sick headache, or any of the distressing aches and pains that cause women so much suffering.

As pain is weakening, and leaves the system in an exhausted condition, it is wrong to suffer a moment longer than necessary, and you should take the Anti-Pain Pills on first indication of an attack.

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered from almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every month, and last two or three days. I have never been able to get anything that would give me relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in a short time. My sister, who suffers the same way, has used them with the same result." The card with 72 S. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

ming draught. I had children sweet and pure as the flowers of spring, and saw them fade and die under the blighting curse of a drunken father. I had a home where love lit its flame upon the altar and ministered before it, but I put out the holy fire and darkness and desolation reigned in its stead. I had aspirations and ambition that soared as high as the morning star, but I broke and bruised those beautiful forms and strangled them that I might hear their cries no more. Today I am a husband without a wife, a father without a child, a tramp without a home and a man in whom every good impulse is dead.

All have been swallowed up in the maelstrom of drink."

The tramp ceased speaking. The glass fell from his nervous fingers and was shattered into a thousand fragments on the floor.

The swinging doors were pushed open and shut again and when the group looked up the tramp was gone.—Exchange.

It's Your Fault if You Spoil Your Wife.

Young man, you have won her. Now don't spoil her. If have been honest she has married you with her eyes open to the fact that you are poor. She is willing to make the best of your poverty.

If you build up her pedestal and set her thereon and adorn her with flashing gems that you can ill-afford, you will spoil her.

If you want to see her dashing around with a bull pup and diamonds while you wear a wrinkled brow and patches, do it. But remember as she sails past you have no one to blame but yourself.

Some husbands are big enough fools to be proud of a strutting wife. They love to see her sparkle, while they become gray and seedy. They point her out as she rustles by, meanwhile pulling the rags from a worn out cuff.

The man who does this is not being fair to his wife. He is doing her a life-long injury.

He is robbing her of the delight of loving him.

He is turning her friends against her.

He is setting her up for ridicule. He is making a fool of her.

Few women can resist the desire to gratify their love for pretty clothes. You knew it when you dined yourself a suit that she might have a lace scarf.

By and by the woman will turn. You will feel abused and neglected. When that day comes remember that you are to blame. You, it was, who set your wife upon a pedestal.

When you kneel before the throne, holding up the gold that has broken your health and sharpened your knees, don't blame her.

If you love her and value your own and her happiness, let her do her part. Tell her the truth when the cash runs low. Don't be a weakling and go a blubbering to borrow enough money to buy the hat she wants.

Give your wife what you can afford, honestly. Give it freely and gladly. But be frank with her; don't conceal from her the empty purse.

Don't make a queen of your wife unless you can afford to be her king.

There is not a woman on the face of the earth who will love you after you have made yourself her slave.—Rome Herald.

When a man shows he regards himself as great, there is no use arguing the point with him.

Tributes to the Bible.

Chas. Sears Baldwin, professor of rhetoric in Yale University, in a recent handbook for students, showing how to prepare a speech, write an essay or tell a story, takes all his examples from the Bible.

In noticing this book the New York Sun takes occasion to quote the following from an address of Charles A. Dana, before the students of Union College, on the profession of journalism, Mr. Dana said:

The next point to be attended to is this: What books ought you to read? There are some books which are indispensable—a few books. Almost all books have their use, even the silly ones, and an omnivorous reader, if he reads intelligently, need never feel that his time is wasted even when he bestows it on the flimsiest trash that is printed; but there are some books which are absolutely indispensable to the kind of education which we are contemplating, and to the profession which we are considering; and of all these the most indispensable, the most useful, the one whose knowledge is most effective, is the Bible. There is no book from which more valuable lessons can be learned.

I am considering it now, not as a religious book, but as a manual of utility, of professional preparation and professional use for a journalist. There is perhaps no book whose style is more suggestive; from which you learn more directly that sublime simplicity which never exaggerates, which recounts the greatest event with solemnity, of course, but without sentimentality of affectation; none which you open with such confidence and lay down with such reverence. There is no book like the Bible. When you get into a controversy and want exactly the right answer, when you are looking for an expression, what is there that closes a dispute like a verse from the Bible? What is it that sets up the right principle for you, which pleads for a policy, for a cause, so much as the right passage of Holy Scripture?

And yet we are every once in a while told by some would-be accounted scholars and smart man that the Bible needs improvement. And these gentlemen essay to offer the improvement it needs! A worse folly is it, for people who profess to be religious, not to study more carefully this book, which as literature alone has commended itself to the most intelligent and cultured men of the ages. Read the Bible; as a book, it challenges attention; as a revelation from God, it is a necessity to the fullest and best understanding His will concerning us.

His term was out yesterday morning, but there were several other warrants against him and he was to have been held. Henderson had three months more to serve. The sheriff swore warrants against both men for breaking jail.—Eagle.

To the Public.

The object of this article is to reply to the many malicious falsehoods printed in last weeks Signal by W. B. Woodward and a copy sent to almost every household in Dahlonega both black and white for the sole purpose of doing us a dirty work and to injure us in the mayors race. All the citizens of Dahlonega know these charges to be false except a few who have recently moved into our town and maybe some parties away in whose hands this filthy article may be. We did not read the article until Sunday morning, having marked the Signal from our exchange list as soon as we observed a few weeks ago that this slander had become editor and business manager, for we did not care to read it or have any thing to do with it.

We made up our mind to swear out a warrant and have Billie arrested on Monday and consulted able counsel about pushing the case to the "bitter end," but after being persuaded by several friends to drop the matter on account of his little children, provided that he does not use our name in such a manner any more, we take this method of meeting these charges of many years ago, with the assurance that never no more will we mention his name, matters not what good deed of reward overtakes him, even if he is hanged.

The first charge he makes is that when we were in business with Steve Rice we swindled him out of a considerable sum of money which has never been paid to this day. Mr. Rice lives only a short distance from the court house who will tell you that we owe him nothing and that every word of this is a lie.

Now about the Farmers Alliance. We were city marshal at the time and were making enough to live on without having to eat up anything belonging to the exchange, and we have witnesses to prove that which he disputes is true.

Concerning shooting out street lights and threatening peoples lives, we will ask why didn't the marshal arrest us and why haven't we been prosecuted long ago for such Jesse James acts?

About the $10 bills and "Miss Ida," referred to by Billie, is untrue. When the woman swore out the warrant we didn't go round asking friends to have her lift the paper like he did when the girl swore out a warrant against him a few years ago charging Billie with bastardy, but refused to pay one cent and went to work getting up a list of witnesses from Shoal Creek district to the Tennessee line in order to meet the case, believing that it was a concocted scheme of some enemy, and since we have been told by a friend that this woman did say that she was persuaded to do what she did.

If the penalty was only ten days in prison for gambling in this place Dahlonega would be headquarters for gamblers. Oh no, Billie. This imprisonment was not for gambling. It was for being drunk and disorderly. A just punishment Col. Price, while mayor about 25 years ago gave us for sowing our wild oats. For the same thing Billie was locked up on a few years ago.

In reference to the charge he makes against us of embezzlement several years ago, all those living here when we were tax collector are aware that we paid both the state and county every dollar we owed them and none of our bondsmen lost a single cent on us. We have been elected constable twice since, city marshal three times and alderman once. Had we wronged either state or county or any citizen does it look reasonable that we would have been elected afterwards to any of these positions?

Now about our remarks concerning preacher Marks. We can prove by Mr. Castiberry that the old gentleman cast an insult at us when being introduced to him. As to minister Gunn we will ask who commenced the trouble? Didn't he attack us in the pulpit in the most bitter words, having a short hand writer present to take it down so the Signal could print it in order that? Why did Mr. Gunn do this? Simply because we wouldn't stop the press, close the office and go to hear him preach one Thursday. We have had no such uncalled for trouble with either of the pastors this year. Mr. Blackwell, Taylor and Marchman have all paid for and read The Nugget this year and it still goes to them.

In reference to assailing the management of the Consolidated Mining Co. is the next charge. When president Adams had tons of black rock run through the mill containing no gold, it reduced the value of the good ore, and caused hundreds of hands to be dismissed because the stockholders refused to advance any more money to work stuff that had been misrepresented to them. We explained this. Did we do right or wrong? We must have done right for many of the stockholders are still our patrons, as well as the past and present managers, who are also our patrons and warm friends.

The next and most ridiculous charge Billie makes is the last one which shows falsehood upon its face. He asserts that we owed the Hall Mide Co. $50 and sent Capt. Hall word that we would homestead him and got out of paying it. Bless your life at that time we had nothing to homestead. Whoever heard of threatening to homestead a man or company on a poll tax? It was many years ago we owed that company $50 and gave the manager a waiver note, and we paid on it along as we could. That note is now in our desk all paid off. Since that time we traded with that company on time. We settled up, never refusing to pay any honest debt. Our credit is good here, in Atlanta and Richmond and we owe no person or firm a single dollar. Nine years ago we leased The Nugget from Capt. Hall. A year afterwards we bought it on a credit. And this debt has long since been paid and what we have is ours with no claim of any kind against it.

You will not be presented with any more articles against either Billie or the Signal to read. We think we have been very accommodating to the paper. We have loaned it composing sticks, lead cutters, paper and money. We got the stick and cutter by going after them. The paper and five dollars are still behind.

W. B. TOWNSEND.

So far the citizens of Lumpkin county have not been visited by a gubernatorial campaign speaker, but we judge that this will not be the case longer than April term of court.

Bill Thompson, a negro, drank 48 drinks of corn liquor down at Birmingham on Sunday night. It is useless to say that he is occupying a six foot hole in the ground now—a good place for all such fools.

For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

"I have had pneumonia three times and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has brought me safely through each time. I have just recovered from my last attack, and feel as well as ever."—Wm. H. Hooten, Stevens Point, Wis.

Made by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold everywhere.

It seems from a report that Georgia is the famous illicit distilling state in the Union. For the year, 1905, ending June 30, the total number of distilleries destroyed in Georgia was 847, value of property, $40,117.93; number of arrests, 788.

We issued our card to be found elsewhere, in circular form and distributed it in Dahlonega before the mayor's primary, but are compelled to publish it in the paper so as to set ourselves right throughout the country. We are now done "cussing" and discussing town politics and will not trouble our readers any more for some time.

Notice.

We will sell at our residence, on the 20th of December, to the highest bidder for cash, the following property, to-wit:

200 bushels of corn; 1500 bundles of fodder; shucks and hay; 2 milch cows—one with young calf. One 2-year old steer; 4 head of hogs; 2 wagons; 1 buggy and harness; farming tools; household and kitchen furniture. And other things too numerous to mention. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock. Terms cash.

This 20th of November, 1905. Respectfully,

Local News.

Mr. Howard Stanton, of Gainesville, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega.

Mr. W. P. Price, Jr., made Atlanta a flying visit first of the week.

Much rain fell last Friday and at night, causing the water courses to be high again.

We are glad to learn that W. J. Hightower expects to put up a cotton gin and a grist mill in Dahlonega.

Messrs. B. R. Meaders & Son left this week with 35 mules and horses for South Georgia. It was a fine lot.

WANTED.—At Dormitory, 50 cords of wood. Send or hand sealed bids to Prof. J. R. Barnes by the 23d inst.

Henry Sheelin, residing near Dahlonega, was carried to Atlanta this week on a bench warrant, charging him with blockading. It is an old case.

Messrs. B. R. Meaders & Son and A. M. Brooksher are bringing a large amount of money into Lumpkin county from the sale of stock every year.

The electric lights, after being off since the 14th of November, caused by an accident. The machinery has been replaced but is not yet in working order.

Claud England, who has been employed as clerk at the Arlington Hotel for some time, was up to see his parents last week. Claud is a good boy and has a bright future before him.

Mr. Warren Hendrix has sold out in Union county, and while over here last week said that he might move to Dahlonega for a while. We hope he will, as he is a good citizen.

More pork has already been brought to Dahlonega this winter than has for the same length of time in many years, and we learn that there are much more that will soon be ready for the market.

Marshal Walker had a public sale here last Friday of some corn and fodder. The corn brought 47 cents per bushel and the fodder $1.55 per hundred. This was scheduled property but it sold all the same.

There are ten or three northern parties who would build a railroad to Dahlonega if our citizens would subscribe liberally to the enterprise. They think this would prevent many damage suits, but our people are unable to go into it.

Mr. J. C. Pierce, one of our patrons at Murrayville, writes us that he has a cow with twin calves at his house, making the second time he has owned twin calves. In addition to this he sends a dollar to renew his subscription to THE NUGGET, saying that he is always glad to get it.

Mr. Charlie McDonald, merchant at Porter Springs, killed a pig during the cold snap last week that would be hard to beat even sildering its age. He bought it from "Farmer Farrow" this summer when it was only six weeks old and killed it when only five months old, and it netted 115 lbs. It was a thorough bred Berkshire, demonstrated the advisability of raising hogs till 20th inst.

On Monday afternoon a man calling himself Greewood or Greenway, appeared at Bruce's Place and made arrangements to stay all night. He said that he lived in Fannin county and was on his way from the west, yet told that he came by mule, the wrong direction for a person to come from the west. The man seemed to be acquainted across the mountains, but not on this side. Just about the time supper was ready the stranger stepped out, and the last seen of him he was "bunking across the hill above the school house.

Col. Chapter visited Atlanta last week on business.

Farmers are getting 50 cents for their corn in Dahlonega.

Mr. William Anderson went down to Jackson county to look him out's Evans home.

Judge Evans killed a porker last week tipping the beam at 435. Another pretty fair town hog.

See advertisement of very desirable town property for sale in this issue by Mrs. J. A. Howard.

In a short time all the school boys will go home to spend Christmas with their relatives and friends.

Judge Kinsey came down from Cleveland last week to grant an amendment to the Northern Power & Milling Co.'s charter.

In a little while Hon. Carter Tate will act as prosecuting attorney for the United States against the blockaders of this section. Quite a change!

Messrs. G. McGuire and H. D. Gurley went down to Atlanta last week to purchase furniture for the Dormitory, recently leased from the Consolidated Co.

Prof. C. W. Davis has rented the John Moore house, known as the old Judge Rice place. It is one of the most elevated and beautiful places in Dahlonega.

Call at Prices and select your Christmas goods before they are picked over. They are pretty, nice and cheap and are sure to please the children. Something for all.

Mr. Shaw, president of the Consolidated Gold Mining Co. and Mr. Breyman, president of the Standard, both came in last week to look after the interest of their respective companies.

The students have not taken the interest in their debating societies since the introduction of football as they did before. The societies would be of some interest to them in time to come. Football will not.

FOR RENT.—The Southern Power & Milling Co. has some desirable farms and dwellings for rent, particulars of which can be had by applying to the manager, Mr. Arnold in Dahlonega. Some are located on the Lumpkin-Chestnut and the Turkey Hill properties.

SELLING OUT.—On Friday, the 22nd inst., I will sell my household and kitchen furniture, consisting of roughness, hogs, cattle, mules, wagon, buggy and harness for same. If you wish to buy something that is profitable, now is your time.

J. H. REDMOND.

We are told that there is a man living up in Yaboola who forced his sister, who had a little child, to pull corn. The poor woman had to carry the child in her arms and pull the ears off with one hand. Another place where a foreign missionary preacher might go and do some good at home first.

A party in Crumby's district was telling how he got tricked in buying shucks from one of his cousins who was moving away. This man paid a certain price for them and when he went to haul the shucks away he found where the owner had made a hole in them and emptied two or three straw bolls and then covered the straw. We are glad to get rid of a person who is guilty of such an act. When he goes where there are none of his cousins, there is no telling what he will do.

When Mr. F. W. Bainbridge, of Ohio, came here he only meant to stay three weeks, but he took charge of the Dahlonega Consolidated Company's business and has been with us more than a year. He is a perfect gentleman and a man who is liked by all. His management of the mines has been so economical and business like as to give perfect satisfaction to all concerned. As soon as Mr. Bainbridge can get off he will go after his wife and bring her to Milledgeville, where she will spend the winter.

Dr. Cavender may buy out Dr. Jones' drug store.

Mr. Vansyckle, of Newark, N. J., came in last Tuesday.

Mr. VanVleck has returned from his visit to Toledo, Ohio.

The state school fund for Lumpkin county for 1906 is $5,002.64.

Mr. Will edge is worse as we go to press and is in a very dangerous condition.

Express wagons for children for sale by J. F. Moore & Co. Prices from 30 cents to $1.75.

Christmas time at B. R. Meaders & Sons. Prices as low as usual. Every body invited.

Next Saturday is the election for mayor at the four aldermen that were nominated last Wednesday night.

Sixty-two mules have left here this week for the lower market. Meaders & Sons carried 34 and Brooksher 28.

Dr. Jones is now down in South Georgia. If he finds a place that suits him better than Dahlonega he will move to it.

Mr. Charlie McDonald was down from Porter Springs for awhile last Monday. Charlie reports business good. The reason is, he advertises in THE NUGGET.

Mr. T. J. Smith, of Dahlonega, killed three fine hogs last Monday. The three weighed 930 pounds. They were one year and twenty days old and the largest one weighed pounds.

There has been a lot of money paid into the county treasury this week and Treasurer Hollifield has been making those having claims against the county, happy by settling with them.

Uncle Bony Tank was here from Auraria last Monday. He renewed his subscription to THE NUGGET and bought a lot of blank options, which shows that there are some deals on foot.

I am now working in the store of B. R. Meaders & Sons, and will appreciate the trade of any of my friends who will come to the above firm to supply their wants. G. W. VAUGHN.

We are revising our subscription list this week and no more free copies of THE NUGGET will be sent out except to the ordinary and sheriff. So send in a dollar if you wish your paper continued.

The cadets belonging to the band, are doing some practicing now. If the money spent for a football coach was used in behalf of the boys' band it would be of some benefit and no danger whatever.

The other night one of the Loggins set a couple of steel traps to catch something that was eating his chickens. The first night it carried off the small trap. And the next night it came back and was caught in the big one and proved to be a very large owl, big enough to fly with the small trap without any trouble.

Our citizens here have signed a petition, asking the department to re-establish New Bridge post-office and the old mail schedule from here to Gainesville by way of that place. The mail doesn't get in here now until after dark and when the roads get worse it will be still later. We hope that this petition, when it is sent off, will not be pigeon holed like the rural route papers.

Some of the students who have been told that they will have to go to the dormitory, are so opposed to it that they say they are not going to return next year. When this move was first mentioned we predicted that it would injure both town and college. So watch and see if we are not correct. In fact its effects can already be seen. A gentleman told us no longer than last Tuesday that he would take at least five hundred dollars less for his town property here now than he had priced it at before. He wants to sell out and move away. Other citizens want to do the same, and they are going as soon as possible.

Mr. McGee wants what you are due him. See notice.

Mrs. M. F. Wheelchel has returned from Anniston, Ala.

At T. J. Smith & Bro. you will find coconuts and fresh candies.

The worst thing Dahlonega needs is a railroad, but when will we get it?

Mrs. John Hall, a sister-in-law of Rev. J. E. Blackburn, of this place, died in Dawson county last Saturday.

Just received at Bruce's fresh candies, oranges, figs, nuts of all kinds, prunes, seedless raisins and currents.

Christmas week is an idle time but if there is any one badly in need of any job work we are at their service.

Mayor Baker says that he will positively allow no display of fire works here during Christmas week. It is too dangerous to risk.

Toys! toys! at Prices, and everything else that is pretty for Christmas. Go and see the many nice things that Santa Clause has left there for you.

Mr. Fred England is here from Gainesville. He came up for the purpose of accepting a position in Dr. Jones' drug store as soon as the Doctor returns if he doesn't sell out. Fred is a nice young man and we are glad to have him with us again.

On Sunday morning last the dwelling and kitchen of Mr. Wm. Gilreath, residing on top of the Blue Ridge were destroyed by fire. It caught in the kitchen. Mr. Gilreath was preparing to move off and turn the premises over to Mr. Ingram, who had moved his things into one of the houses, together with a lot of pork. So about all the household goods of both families were destroyed, together with all this meat. We, together with some more of our citizens, rendered the unfortunate families a little aid on Tuesday.

The Summer Boarder.

We ask our readers to consider well the following clipping which we take from a leading Northern paper. Gov. Batchelder is high authority and his statements can be relied upon. What summer boarders have done for the mountain portions of New Hampshire is no more than they would have done for our section here in the mountains of North Georgia if proper inducements had been held out for them. They can't come into our mountains unless we provide accommodations for them. We have only one Summer Resort in our county when we ought to have twenty just like it. Porter Springs has had a successful career for thirty years, being full to overflowing every summer, and yet no other enterprises of that class have sprung. Look at the improvement in the vicinity of the resort and you will see what such places do in the way of building up the country around them. Read what Gov. Batchelder says below and then let more of our enterprising citizens do as Col. Farrow has been doing for thirty years and you will see wonderful improvement in these mountains: "THE SUMMER BOARDER."

Taking 30 New Hampshire towns as the basis of his figuring, Gov. Batchelder gives an idea of what the summer boarder has done for that state. He has increased in these 30 towns from $3,000 in 1890 to $198,000 in 1904. Last year the summer boarder spent $3,732,000, against $1,478,900 in 1890. For his accommodations there have been established in the 14 years 149 summer hotels and 72 boarding houses. Then, too, the summer visitor has bought during this period 1218 summer homes at a cost of $3,005,850, and laid out $3,669,000 for improvements. These figures are not of the lying sort, and they are surprising. City folks must go to the country, and that it pays to treat them well, this exhibit demonstrates.—Springfield Republican.

Mining Notes.

They are now pumping the water out of the Ogle shaft at the Barlow, so the president of the company can make a personal examination of the mine. Then he will determine about the power to work it.

Several parties were down to examine the Bunker Hill gold mine a few days ago, all of whom were so well pleased that they took stock. The company has decided to put in another dredge boat in the Chestatee river.

Mr. Tompkins, who has been here for some time, operating the chlorination plant for the Consolidated Co., finished up his work and departed for his home last week. The result of his work is said to be very satisfactory, proving that much of the values of the ores here are lost by the old method of handling it.

Mr. Wash Jenkins, who is at work on the Findley, informed us last week that from twenty tons of ore he made one hundred and fifty-one pennyweights and seventeen grains of gold. The vein is large, in fact he does not know how large it is, as he has cut a space of fourteen feet wide on it and has not reached the edge either right nor left.

Manager Hutcheson of the Battle Branch Mine was in Dahlonega last Tuesday and reported that they were getting along splendid at this celebrated mine, and doing very well in the way of making money. The boiler, air compressor and drills, belonging to Mr. Murray, have been purchased and will be conveyed to the Battle Branch and put in position at once.

The New Mass Meeting.

The municipal mass meeting held here last Wednesday night for mayor and four aldermen was so close between the editor of this paper and Prof. E. B. Vickery for mayor as to make it very interesting. Only one vote difference. The Professor received 56 and we got 55. W. J. Hightower, G. H. McGuire, T. S. Littlefield and Boyd Gurley were elected without opposition by acclamation. Col. Charters was chairman and Mr. Lindsey Cook secretary.

We were alone in the race until a short time ago when Mr. J. E. McGee, a merchant and prominent citizen was induced by his friends to enter the race, who continued in the field until last Friday, when the gentleman decided that politics didn't suit him and Mr. McGee withdrew. Then after a strong appeal from some of the citizens who dislike us politically, Prof. Vickery at 11 o'clock Tuesday night yielded and made the race, and his friends went to work and the above is the result.

Prof. Vickery is a high toned christian gentleman—held a position in the college for a number of years and has discharged his duties well and is a man who is liked by everybody, and we feel complimented in getting as close behind him as we did, and as long as we are defeated we know of no man who we had rather been beaten by than Prof. Vickery, though we did think it a little peculiar in the gentleman in refusing to swap votes with us so we could vote for each other in the primary. But it is well known that an independent newspaper man is apt to say something that will displease some one, yet Prof. Vickery is a liberal patron of THE NUGGET—taking one paper for himself and two for his friends. But it makes no difference what he refused to do we will go out tomorrow and cast our ballot for Prof. Vickery and all the aldermen nominated. This is our way of doing business, feeling confident that they will carefully look after the towns interest and discharge their duties well.

To our friends who stuck square to us we wish to return our sincere thanks to one and all. To those who tried to make it appear that they were for us and at the same time working for the other fellow, we have nothing to say. So enough on this subject. We wish to resume our duties in working for the town and county.

Half Way Dots.

There will be a Christmas tree at St. Paul church Christmas day at 3 o'clock. Every body invited especially those who have contributed to the tree.

Misses Mirtle and Artie Smith, of Liberty, South Carolina, are here visiting their aunt, Miss Cora Garvin.

Mr. John Stringer had a big corn shucking last Wednesday. He made near fourteen hundred bushels.

Did you see any body riding high last Sunday? We guess you did, as Charlie Huff has a new saddle.

Among the young men who attended the party at Mr. John Stringer's last Wednesday night, were Messrs. Frank Burns, Claud Waters, Gordon Wheelchel, Goodman Burns, Bob London, Claud Burns, and Clarence London, of New Bridge.

Miss Maud Chapman, who is teaching at 7 Mile, was in Half Way last Wednesday.

It seems that Col. Pierce was the lucky fellow at the corn shucking, as he carried one of the pretty South Carolinians home and didn't break his glasses.

Did you say that you were invited to a dance?

One of the young men at the corn shucking was talking to one of the young ladies, said, "When did you all come?" Boys, you can't use grammar and shuck corn too.

GEORGE WILCOX.

Meaders' Cheap Cash Store.

Having had to be away from our business in Dahlonega for a greater part of the last three weeks, we are glad to feel that our health has sufficiently been restored to permit us to return and give our personal attention to our store again. However, it is with pleasure that our customers have continued their very welcome patronage, which convinces us in our belief that Mr. Will Vaughn is polite and attentive, as well as honest with our customers and with us, and we have therefore employed Mr. Vaughn to remain in our employ and are sure he will give the public honest weights and measures. Whether you come to do your trading or send the little child, our firm's policy is to give the most goods of the quality requested that is possible for the amount of cash invested. We have one price only to all, whether you pay in produce or cash, and make it a specialty of ours that our price is as low as any other merchants and often lower.

We wish to thank each and every person who has made a purchase at our store in the past and extend a cordial invitation to every one to call and examine our goods and get our prices.

We are now opening up our Christmas goods, and as usual, will sell them at a cut price. Come in to see us.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

College Notes.

Things are moving on nicely in our ranks now.

Cadet Hendrix and his sister, Miss Vianna, have withdrawn from college for the remainder of the present term, but we understand they will return the first of January.

One of our bachelor professors observed his birthday the other day. Age unknown (to the public.)

Lieut. Alford is a Freshman again.

Cadet Reynolds has quit visiting town since the faculty met the other day.

The entertainment in the college chapel Monday night was a success in every respect. Every body was pleased, and a nice sum of money was raised for the Graded school library.

Miss Crenshaw is on a visit to her home in Dawson county this week.

Rev. J. E. Blackburn informs us that he has a notion of making the race for the legislature in Lumpkin county.

The Wealth of John D. Rockefeller.

In Wall Street John D. Rockefeller's wealth is estimated at fully $200,000,000; his income is $25,000,000 a year.

This income is nearly equal to the entire income of all the crowned heads of Europe.

It seems that he collects a million-dollar dividend a little often—than twice a month.

As he rides to church in his auto he is able to reflect upon the cheerful fact that his fortune has grown $480,000 in the previous Sunday.

Rockefeller's daily income is $80,120. How can any one spend against that? This is at the rate of $10,015 every hour, if he observes the eight-hour day, or at the rate of $3,838.54 every hour in the twenty-four.

Just think of getting $55.63 every minute!

The average respiration of an adult is eighteen per minute.—Therefore every time John gets his breath he is $9.00 better off.

The Rockefeller income is equal to a tax of $3 1/3 per annum on every man, woman and child in the United States.

If he were to put his fortune into $1 bills, he could carpet seven and one-half acres 100 deep with them.

Think of walking across a field and kicking up money like that.—Memphis Scimitar.

NO ONE CAN SOLVE IT

To Tell Exactly the Cost of Transportation is Impossible.

Major Henry Fink, formerly President of the old East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia railroad, is one of the ablest railway men in the world. He is a profound thinker, an able writer and a keen debater. Years ago he wrote some essays on railway questions which read now, show that he saw into the future with the vision of a prophet. Major Fink has recently published a book on Rate Regulation which throws new light on questions of the greatest importance to railway managers and to the public. He says that it is simply impossible to figure out what it costs a railroad to transport any particular article. No mathematical rule can be laid down for calculating the expense of hauling freight, he believes is the smallest part of the cost. Major Fink declares that the greatest injustice done to shippers is due to the unrestrained competition between roads. In order to get the business of a large shipper, some roads will give him a secretly low rate which enables him to undersell a competitor. Congress cannot prevent this by giving a Commission power to fix rates. He says, no Commission could make rates for the entire country without getting them all mixed up and so confused that both the roads and the public would suffer. The Major states that the present laws should be strengthened and the railway officials should be encouraged if not required to co-operate with the Interstate Commerce Commission in enforcing the laws against unjust discriminations.

Your Life Current.

The power that gives you life and motion is the nerve force, or nerve fluid, located in the nerve cells of the brain, and sent out through the nerves to the various organs. If you are tired, nervous, irritable, cannot sleep, have headaches, feel stuffy, dull and melancholy, or have neuralgia, rheumatism, backache, periodical pains, indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach trouble, or the kidneys and liver are inactive, your life-current is weak.

Power-producing fluid is needed; something to increase nerve energy—strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is the fuel you need. It feeds the nerves, produces nerve force, and restores vitality.

"When I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and Anti-Pain Tonic I was confined to my bed. I had severe nervous spells, the result of two years illness with malaria. I gradually grew so weak that I was unable to sit up. The spells would come on with cold chills, and I would become weak and shiver. My circulation was poor, and I would feel all over like a weak and weary. The Nerve Tonic seemed to strengthen me right away, and my circulation was better. I have been in all the best offices of the Nerve Tonic, and I am satisfied with it. Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind."

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Luck of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

Know What You Can Do.

Men, like water, find their level. Presumption, self-assurance, egotism, have no effect, unless they have the mental force and physical energy with which to back them up. If a man understands what his forte is, what he can do, and does it well, he has the respect of the community, but if he tries to do what he cannot do well, he appears ridiculous. When Disraeli made his first speech in Parliament he was booed and laughed at. He knew his forte, and was only strengthened in his opinion and determination by the jeers he received, so with clenched teeth he said: "They shall hear me!" and they did. These words in the mouth of almost any other person would likely have never been repeated, but through him they have become almost axiomatic. The only way to discover what you can do is by trying to perform faithfully whatever comes in your way. If you fail in doing what you undertake to do to your own satisfaction, learn the cause and try again, and keep trying until you accomplish it.—Sel.

You are Invited to South Georgia.

CORDELE, GA., Dec. 11, 1905.
EDITOR NUGGET:
We received so many letters from Dahlonega, inquiring about this section, I will write a few lines for your readers.

Crisp county is certainly on a boom business of all kinds—good money seems plentiful to those who work to get it. Farming pays, twelve cents cotton makes the farmer smile.

It is funny to read your editorials advertising the farmers up there to plant cotton between the rocks. If they want to raise cotton let them come to South Georgia. This sandy soil is so easily worked and can be made very productive. A good farmer here gets a bale to the acre. Some of us had rather cultivate five acres here in cotton than one in Lumpkin county. All root crops grow fine, oats and hay. Corn is not so good as the mountain corn, owing to the weavels getting in it, but a man can make plenty for his stock. Hogs fatten on ground pens and potatoes and do not require but little feeding.

The farmers have a ready market here at Cordele for everything they raise. Pork is now 7 1/2 to 8 cents, chickens 80 to 40¢, butter 30¢ per pound, potatoes 50¢ per bushel. I would advise all who contemplate moving to come to Crisp county and see for themselves. There is plenty of room for all thrifty farmers. Of course they would have hardships to get settled. Improved land is going up—the improvement cost more than the land, although timber is cheap, and it is very easy to build up a home.

With from all reports, old Dahlonega is in a bad way. I know from sad experience, what it is to work for a college and then have the board of trustees to take the bread out of our mouths, and as good as to tell us to "root hog or die."

I hear Dr. Glenn is in South Georgia working for the college but I have not a word to say. I would like to help my old town and her good people, but to kill the town to please the faculty, I have never agreed to yet. And that is why I had to move out and leave a good home vacant, and I would advise all those situated to move to South Georgia. I suppose one firm here, Palmer & Webb, handle more money in one day than all the merchants of Dahlonega do in a week. While I love the old red hills and would prefer to live there than any place in Georgia, but I see no hope for the old place until there is a great change in the management of the college, and a more combine effort of the people to get a railroad. Cordele has already six railroads and another soon to be built.

We get THE NUGGET every Saturday and could not get along well without it, and wish you continued success.

Yours,
YANCY HAYNES.

Too many are using today what they expect to earn tomorrow. Credit prevents us from realizing the true value of money, and having the full control of our own affairs. We all have more or less love for the real dollars, and while we may see many things we would like very much, the rapidly lessening amount of cash on hand warn us to stop long before the page of a book accounted will be filled.—Ex.

Horse Sense Hints.

Don't leave me hitched in my stall at night with a big cob right where I must lie down. I am tied and can't select a smooth place.

Don't compel me to eat more salt than I want by mixing it with my oats. I know better than any other animal how much I need.

Don't think because I go free under the whip I don't get tired. You would move under the whip.

Don't think because I am a horse that weeds and briars won't hurt my hay.

Don't whip me when I get frightened along the road, or I will expect it next time and may be make trouble.

Don't trot me up hill, for I have to carry you and the buggy and myself, too. Try it yourself some time. Ran up hill with a big load.

Don't keep my stable very dark, for when I go out into the light my eyes are injured.

Don't say "whoa" unless you mean it.

Teach me to stop at the word. I can check me if the lines break, and save a runaway and smash up.

Don't ask me to back with blindons on. I am afraid to.

Don't run me down a steep hill, for if anything should give way I might break your neck.

Don't put on my bridle so that it irritates my eyes, or so leave my forelock that it will be in my eyes.

Don't be so careless of my harness as to find a great sore on me before you attend to it.

Don't forget the old book that is friend of all the oppressed that says:

"A merciful man is merciful to his beasts."—Farm Journal.

Receipt for Making Every Day Happy.

When you rise in the morning form a resolution to make the day a happy one to a fellow creature. It is easily done; a left off garment to the man who needs it, a kind word to the sorrowful, and encouraging expression to the striving, trifles in themselves light as air, will do it, at least for the twenty-four hours; and if you are young, depend on it, it will tell you when you are old, it will send you gently and happy down the stream of human time to eternity.

By the most simple arithmetical sum, look at the result; you send one person, only one, happily through the day—that is three hundred and sixty-five in the course of a year; and supposing you live only forty years after you commence that course of medicine, you have made fourteen thousand six hundred human beings happy, at all events for a time. It is too short for a sermon, too homely for ethics, too easily accomplished for you to say, "I would if I could."—Sidney Smith.

Farewell to 1905.

President Roosevelt favors the whipping post.

Mrs. W. Y. Atkinson gets the Newman postoffice.

Col. J. A. Butt died at Blairsville on the 10th inst.

The democrats of Boston have elected a democratic mayor.

The wealthiest citizen of Atlanta is H. T. Inman, whose property is assessed at $600,000.

The Atlanta papers spoke of fair weather for Friday night. It didn't get this far up.

The Ducktown case in the United States Supreme court, has been postponed until January 15th.

Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky were in the grasp of a severe sleet and snow storm last week.

The Marietta Journal remarks that the Methodist pastors in the smaller towns are now being "pounded."

Sanford, charged with murder in Rome, Ga., will have his second trial on the third Monday in January.

Convicts seem to be in demand now. A railroad company paid Cobb county $18.60 a month each for 25 the other day.

Down at Waynesboro last week, George Gleason killed his father because the old man said something about him being drunk.

The postoffice safe at Douglasville, Ga., was blown open the other night and about $1,000 in money and stamps were taken.

Forty-six extra people have been employed by postmaster Blodgett to handle the great overflow of holiday mail in Atlanta.

Mr. J. A. Hollifield requests us to say that he will be a candidate for re-election to the office of county treasury, of Lumpkin.

It is stated that President Roosevelt will give no more negroes in the south federal jobs. Lyons has lost his job and Rucker will soon go out of business.

The Christmas edition of the Jackson County Herald contains 24 pages of interesting reading and advertising matter. This alone shows vim and energy on the part of its editor and that Jackson is a prosperous county.

Representative Bennett, of New York, has introduced a bill to cut down the representation of the southern states in congress because of the disfranchisement of the negro. The bill reduces the entire number of representatives from 355 to 351.

Mrs. Van Wyner, who disappeared from her home in Atlanta several days ago, was discovered in the Grady Hospital. Her excuse for leaving was on account of some knifings being at her house who she disliked. The lady could have saved all this trouble and uneasiness by telling them that they were not welcome.

On Tuesday night, after Henry O'Shields lost his store by fire he went home and found his wife and Milt Emmett, a brother-in-law, under improper conditions. Henry went off and got a witness and a pistol and upon his return shot and dangerously wounded both his wife and her lover and then surrendered to the sheriff.

The Municipal Primary Not Desirable.

Under the present system of selecting a mayor for Dahlonega it is a rare thing for a man to be elected to the office unless he is a person to the town ring or is a person who may be selected by it, showing that mass meetings are not the best way of placing either mayor or aldermen before the people. Numbers of persons are deprived of taking any part in it because they can't be on hand at a meeting which only lasts an hour or so. In so short a time it gives a chance to keep voters away until it is over by getting them heavily drunk or hiring them to stay off, as was the case at the recent mass meeting, until it is over, often resulting in a mayor being selected and elected who is not the choice of a majority of the voters of the town. At the last meeting 28 voters who had registered did not get to vote. Aldermen are often elected by the "fixers" and put through in the same manner. Now had all the 28 absent voters, or even a majority of them been present on the night of the 13th, a different mayor would have served the people for the next two years. And as to illegal registration, if there were fifty of them they could vote in a mass meeting without any legal interference. The charter of Dahlonega, which was granted by the legislature, says the qualification of voters is determined by the election managers. Now what has a mass meeting to do with this matter? Nothing. Or how could a man, who might be defeated by fifty illegal votes help himself, when the law makes no provisions to contest any ballots cast in such mass meetings? At these mass meetings votes could be bought and sold right in the court house during the time and liquor used and no one could be hurt by law. Now let a fairer plan than this be adopted by the city fathers for the next election. A way to take its management out of the hands of the ring so any one can run for mayor or alderman and have his rights protected by law. This can be done by an election which can be held during the day and all day, giving but little chance for any dirty tricks to be covered up by darkness. Then a man cannot be kept away from the polls all day by being made drunk or sent off, giving every voter a chance to come to the polls some time during the day and cast his ballot unmolested.

About the Mines.

MR. TOWNSEND: Your valuable contributions through the medium of your paper pertaining to mining interest in this section, no doubt is gratifying and valuable to your patrons and investors of gold properties in this section. Pertinent to the Dahlonega Consolidated Co. as a matter of interest to its stockholders will say that the development of their property has been slow—very.

Large bodies of ore obtain in the vicinity of the big mill, but in the main ore barren or low grade, while the good ones in our experience "pinch out" and groping under ground for other experience hence our operations transferred to the old Barlow, at which the "gouging" miner never fails.

On the Ogle vein our shaft is down nearly a hundred feet. The ore is about 6 feet thick. For 80 feet on the trend of the vein values 4 to 7 pennyweights per ton. Foot and hanging walls are well defined, smooth and regular. The ore at the bottom of the shaft continues good as at the top.

On the same vein half mile to the South West in the big cut nearly as much development has been made with encouragement to correspond.

At the Findley a vein recently discovered covered five feet three inches thick from which 20 tons milled, yielded 7.55 dwts. per ton. The latter or Findley vein is a good prospect. The other two propositions are more. We shall be in Toledo, Ohio, next week with more detailed information for stockholders.

Yours truly,
F. W. HAINBRIDGE.

How We Were Defeated.

As some have a good deal to say about one of our friends treating a few persons the day before the primary for mayor and aldermen we desire to mention a few of the schemes resorted to in order to defeat the editor of THE NUGGET before the mass meeting for mayor of Dahlonega, by our political enemies.

In the first place several who induced us to make the race went back on their word and worked and voted for our opponent, and several men were forced either to stay away from the meeting or go to that day. It was either this or lose their jobs, and being poor persons couldn't afford to be without work, yet some of their employers stand in the "upright" column, and members of the church who ought to be willing for every man to exercise a right to vote as given him by law.

But this is not the worst. Two more business men, being unable to vote Uncle Dick Anderson, an old gray haired colored man, their way, one of them, a council member, who not long ago voted for a reward of $10.00 to be paid out of the city treasury to any one furnishing sufficient proof to convict a person selling or offering for sale blockade or any other kind of liquor in Dahlonega, sweetened up a lot of the stuff and induced the old negro to drink enough of it to render him unable to get to the meeting. He started out on a flight of steps, where he lay groaning and grunting and suffering until he was picked up by a white lad and a negro man and carried into a house, rendering the poor old fellow unable to work any for two or three days, and instead of being ashamed of it one of these men was out on the streets laughing about it the next day, and now Uncle Dick is going to be church-ed and cast out among sinners and country editors.

An effort was made by one of the county officers to get "Choc-taw" Davis off up the road, pretending that a blockade was to meet him there with some liquor, in order to keep Mr. Davis off until the mass meeting was over, but the old man "smelled a mouse" and came off leaving this "efficient" officer behind, and returned time enough to be true to his word in voting for us.

Another county officer and member of the church took his stand in the lower part of the court house with a handful of Vickiey tickets, inviting voters who he thought might be changed against us, to take one and a drink of liquor.

When Floyd Adams was for us and registered it was claimed by some of our opposers that he was under age, yet a city official and a church member carried the fellow off and gave him a talk and a big drink, "fixed" him against us and nothing more was said about his age.

Another official tried to persuade one of our relatives to come in from the country and use liquor against us, but he was too true a friend to the editor for that.

Now, gentle reader, don't you think we made a good race just to be defeated by one vote with all such opposition to meet?

The above shows the unfairness of municipal mass meetings.

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! In gratitude, it grew long and heavy, and with all the deep, rich color of early life. Sold in all parts of the world for sixty years.

"About one year ago I lost nearly all of my hair. After using a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, I found it began to grow again, and now I have a full head of hair."—Mrs. W. J. Knapp, Seneca, N. Y.

There will be three candidates in the field for the legislature in Lumpkin county.

Hon. F. C. Tate has already taken charge of the office of U. S. attorney for the Northern District of Georgia.

Harriet, who thinks he was elected mayor of New York, is going to carry his case to the legislature and see if he can't force a recount of the ballots.

The contract for the grading of the Athens and Jefferson railroad has been awarded to Groatling & Mackall, of Norfolk, Va., and the actual grading will be under way within two weeks, said last week's Gainesville Eagle.

Some of the democrats are talking about running for county offices on the independent ticket. Don't do it! If you want an office put your name before the primary. Primaries are not like mass meetings. They continue all day and there is no chance to get a man drunk enough to keep him away from the polls all day.

The Rawlings case goes up to the United States Supreme court and the old man and his two sons will not be hung January 6th. The other Rawlings boy, who is now in the penitentiary, will be brought back. In Lowndes county, all lawyers, doctors, ministers and railroad men are excluded from the grand jury and the petit jury. The exclusion of these men is claimed to be contrary to the state law of Georgia and the constitution of this state, which is a denial to the defendants of due process of law and the equal protection of the laws granted them. For these reasons the case goes to a higher court.

Ala., Piedmont.—Building owned by Webb

Local News.

Judge Evans is selling "Christmas" license pretty fast.

They are also going to have a Christmas tree at the Presbyterian church tomorrow night.

Be sure and send in the dollar right away if you want to read THE NUGGET next year.

Mrs. Blanch-Gurley has returned from Blue Ridge, where she spent several weeks with relatives.

After a few week's visit to Canton, Ga., Col. and Mrs. J. F. Moore have returned to Dahlonega.

Mrs. Ollie Jones came in from Blocton, Ala., last Sunday to spend Christmas with her parents here.

Mrs. E. W. Strickland offers her millinery goods at absolute cost and carriage. Now is the time to get bargains.

Mr. Luther Ferguson was wedded to Miss Della Ash, a daughter of Mr. Wm. Ash, last Sunday. Rev. J. L. Wehant performed the ceremony.

The last acts of the legislature have been received by Judge Tate, and all officers entitled to them are requested to call at his office and get them at once.

A wedding occurred up in Nimbleshill district last Sunday. The contracting parties were Mr. Will Pordow and Miss May Hales. Rev. W. T. Dowdy officiated.

Dr. Jones has returned from his visit to South West Georgia. The Doctor likes the country very well but does not know yet whether he will sell out and move or not.

Mrs. R. M. Bryson left last Monday to spend a short time with relatives below, when she will be joined first of January and then they will go to their new home at Ocilla, Ga.

County Treasurer Hollifield received $225 more convict money a few days ago, the amount due Lumpkin for the third quarter. The treasurer informs us that he now has about $1,000 of this fund on hand.

One business man of Dahlonega says the establishment of the dormitory has cut him out of more than one hundred and fifty dollars a month in trade. This is why he is looking out for another place to locate.

Mr. Thomas A. P. Tate, of Willow, informed us Monday that he was going to start off next week in search of a place to locate. He expects to rent out his farm. Then if he becomes dissatisfied he will have a place to return to.

Darius Santa Claus' visit to Dahlonega has dropped into the Drug Store and left quite a lot of nice things for the children for Christmas. Both large and small will be sure to find something that will please them and their children.

T. J. Smith requests us to state to his customers that he will be found at his new store, at the old Signal stand January 1st, ready to serve everybody. He will sell for cash or its equivalent, means to sell as cheap as goods can be sold anywhere with freight added.

There is no railroad in Union county, and look how prosperous the farmers are in that section, who have to haul their produce many miles farther to market than those residing in Lumpkin county. Give your farms the same attention here as they do over there and you will have no trouble in prospering.

The prospect is very good for a railroad from Rossville to Dahlonega now. The route has been looked over and the party reports it to be a practicable one. A survey will commence on this line at an early date. The entire length of the proposed line would cover a good country and pay well. How it has escaped the notice of railroad men before this, we cannot see.

Mr. Drew Motes died in Mill Creek district last Friday, aged 75.

Mr. Wilks, of the Mecklenburg Iron Works, of North Carolina, was here last week.

One day last week Mr. Will Dowdy was married to Miss Liza Jarrard, a daughter of Mr. Allen Jarrard.

Marshal Grizzle went up into White county last Friday and destroyed an illicit distillery, near the Asbury place. The operator was not there.

If you are expecting to be a candidate for an office in Lumpkin county it will cost 25 cents for a few lines as a fee and later on it will take $2.50 as a catcher, until the primary.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. W. M. Rice, which occurred at Milner, Ga., on December 11th. The husband of the deceased is a brother to our townsman, Mr. Steven Rice.

For awhile Mr. Joe Walden was thinking of moving to Jackson county, but we are glad to state that he has declined and will remain where he is. Joe is a good, hard working farmer, and can make a good living right here in Lumpkin county, where he was born and raised.

Many of our citizens are kicking because the trustees approved the rules adopted by the faculty establishing the dormitory and forcing students to go to it. Prof. Vickory was one of the faculty and all voting for him for mayor endorsed their rules same as the trustees. Now, what is the use of grumbling at the trustees?

If our farmers would use the same energy here as those residing in South Georgia, there would be no use of so many of them moving away. Turn your attention to the land you own here, properly fertilize it and work and quit moving about. It costs money to move, and then if a person is dissatisfied with a new country what pleasure is life to them?

Mr. W. H. Courtney came down from White county last Friday. Mr. Courtney is a farmer who "lives at home and boards at the same place," keeping a watchful eye for anything that tends to help the tillers of the soil and build up his county. We wish we had a lot of just as energetic men in our county as Mr. Courtney. He was telling us about the many acres of land out in the Edge settlement, in Lumpkin county, that could likely be bought for 50 cents per acre that could not be purchased for many times this much if it was located in certain districts in his county. These lands could be made very valuable if first sowed down in peas and then turned under and properly fertilized. But it takes time and energy to do it.

Last Saturday was mayors election and Prof. Vickory, the one selected by the mass meeting, received 82 votes out of the 107 cast and the G. H. McGuire, T. S. Littlefield, Boyd Gurley and W. J. Hightower each received 102 votes except Mr. Hightower who did not vote for himself, which threw him behind one for admiral. These gentlemen, together with W. P. Price, Jr., and T. J. Smith will be the candidates for next year. Although he advised the voters through THE NUGGET to vote for Prof. Vickory and the rest of the nominated ticket, the editor of this paper received 25 ballots for mayors, even after stating that meaning that we could not accept the place if elected as an independent. This shows the dissatisfaction caused by the dirty tricks resorted to the night the mass meeting was held in order to defeat us. Had this not been done every thing would have been satisfactory. At the mass meeting a year previous to nominate three aldermen there were not two dozen people present, yet the citizens went up to the polls and endorsed by their ballots what this meeting did, because no unfair methods had been resorted to.

Merchant Ben Anderson speaks of moving away.

At T. J. Smith & Bro. you will find coconuts and fresh candies. If you want a fiddle, banjo, mandolin for Christmas, G. H. McGuire has them.

WANTED. -- At Dormitory, 50 cords of wood. Send or hand sealed bids to Prof. J. R. Barnes by the 23rd inst.

Don't forget to send in the money if you want THE NUGGET. A dollar is a small amount to some of you but a number of them to us amounts to a large sum.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore leave on a ten day's visit to South Georgia the 26th, and as we have said before, it may be that Mr. Moore will decide to move down there.

A bunch of keys was found last Tuesday by a gentleman of this county on the road eight miles this side of Gainesville, which the owner can get by calling or sending to THE NUGGET office and paying for this ad.

The date for paying the veterans of the state their pensions, have been announced. Those of Union county, February 1st, Lumpkin, Dawson and White, February 15. Union has 80, Dawson 75, Lumpkin 85, White 86.

Dr. Glenn has returned from his South Georgia trip. The Doctor thinks that his visit will prove of much benefit to the college, and we trust that it will, for it is a great institution and has given hundreds of boys and girls an education in Georgia.

Some funny mistakes occur in a newspaper sometimes. We meant to say a mass meeting last week. It appeared "New" Mass Meeting. It's true some things about it was new, men changing on the spot, but still this was not the proper head for the article.

FOR RENT. -- The Southern Power & Milling Co. has some desirable farms and dwellings for rent, particulars of which can be had by applying to the manager, Mr. Arnold in Dahlonega. Some are located on the Lumpkin-Chestnut and the Turkey Hill properties.

Cols. Charters, Lilly and Baker have been before the Supreme court in Atlanta this week, arguing the Lingerfelt case, which was sent up from this county. Lingerfelt was found guilty at the last term of Lumpkin Superior court of shooting Mr. J. B. Swancy. The judge refused to grant a new trial and this is why it went before the Supreme court.

The trustees met one day a week and adopted the resolution presented by the faculty, that the dormitory. Student boarding with relatives or friends will not be compelled to go to the dormitory. Heretofore 28 days have been counted as a month at the dormitory. This will be changed so as to be governed by the calendar month, which is in favor of the students.

According to a time honored custom of weekly newspapers in the South, there will be no NUGGET issued from this office next week. We will take a week's rest and present you with a NUGGET on the 5th day of January. Our business has been very successful for the year 1905, for which we wish to return our sincere thanks to every patron of THE NUGGET. Wishing you a happy Christmas and prosperous New Year, we will bid you adieu until the date mentioned above.

Mr. W. H. Elliott, of Dawson county, dropped in to see us last week. Mr. Elliott is a big hearted gentleman, jovial and full of vim and energy and we wish he lived in Lumpkin. Dawson has been pretty well represented in the N. G. A. College here this year but Mr. Elliott says that, the rule forcing students to board at the dormitory will cause some of them to fail to return after Christmas. The others will come back but if any students are excused from going to the dormitory they will return to their homes.

We already have 24 subscribers at Murrayville, but we have room on our books for more.

A number of our citizens, while in town paying taxes this week, did not fail to renew their subscriptions. Thanks, gentlemen.

Mr. F. J. Williams, who lives up near the foot of the Blue Ridge, tells us that he is going to plant a few acres in cotton next year.

The applicants so far for city marshal are Marshal Geo. Walker and Mr. Geo. Jenkins. Mr. Will Vaughn's name is also mentioned.

The sun was hid by clouds from the 13th until last Monday afternoon and then it only peeped out a few minutes and was not seen any more until Tuesday.

We hope that the holidays in Dahlonega will pass off quietly and that no one will do anything for which they will have to be punished. Keep sober and you will not get into trouble.

If you don't send or hand us a dollar during next week while we are finishing revising our subscription list we will take it for granted that you do not wish to read THE NUGGET next year and we will have your name off. This means you.

Christmas goods at W. P. Price, Jr., will be sold for the next few days at greatly reduced prices. He has the largest lot of dress suits ever brought to Dahlonega. This is a good opportunity of getting something nice very cheap.

Miss Mattie Huff, who has been running a boarding house here for several months, closes it this week and will return to the country. She was boarding students and the establishing of a dormitory closed her house, causing Dahlonega to lose another citizen and the taxes higher on those who are left.

After an absence from Dahlonega of more than a quarter of a century, Rev. Mr. Foote returned to this place to take charge of the M. E. church last Monday, accompanied by his family, who will occupy the stand next Sunday. As we have said before, Mr. Foote is well liked by every body here who is acquainted with him, and all are proud of his return.

The newly elected city council here, or at least some of them, have already commenced figuring to see what to cut expenses so as to enable the tax payers to meet it next year. One of them tells us he thinks by reducing the marshals salary and electing a clerk from the body and all members do their work for nothing like they used to do that the people may be able to stand it. This member thinks that a good marshal can be procured at 80 cents a day and perquisites.

In reference to Prof. Vickory refusing to swap votes with us in the mayor's race at the mass meeting last week, he explained it satisfactorily, and there is no ill feeling between us. Prof. Vickory treated us gentlemanly and all right, but some of his friends resorted to very dirty tricks to defeat us, men that ought to be above suspicion. Yet they did it all the same. But everything will come right in less than a hundred years from today and all these acts will be forgotten.

A young man from Savannah told us Tuesday morning, as he came through Gainesville some time ago that they said to him there that Dahlonega was the worst place in the world, but he came on and found the statement untrue. Gainesville is always working against Dahlonega, but notwithstanding this, our business men and other citizens do much of their trading in Gainesville and help keep the place up. Buy your groceries by the cart load in some other market and give your customers the benefit of the low prices so as to help your own town. These misrepresentations about Dahlonega is one reason why we want the railroad to come from Roswell.

Don't forget to pay your sanitary taxes.

Mr. O. R. Arnold has returned from Philadelphia.

Capt. and Mrs. Williams left last week on a visit.

Mr. J. E. Anderson and his family left for Monroe, Ga., last Wednesday to locate.

Patronize the merchants who invite you to come to see them publicly in the newspaper.

Mr. Wylie Carroll will move from Dahlonega, but has not decided yet which direction he will go.

Mr. Wm. Cavender moved to the marble works in Pickens county this week to open out a boarding house.

There is nothing special to report in mining circles this week. Everything in this line is moving along about as usual.

Hatcheson & Bro., who have been doing a successful business out at Freda for some time, sold out and moved to Atlanta last Tuesday.

Mr. James Phillips and his son, who have been over at Ducktown for several months, are here to spend Christmas. He may move his family there later on.

For the first time in many years Lumpkin county is out of debt, with money enough in the treasury to run it until about the middle of next year. Taxes won't be so high next year.

Santa Claus visited a residence in Crumby's district one night last week and left a jug of mountain dew, and the man and his wife drank so much that they kept up a big racket the rest of the night.

On Monday last a high toned christian gentleman, whose word is as good as his bond, came to us and said when we wanted to run for anything any more that he would support us. That man felt that we had conducted a clean campaign and acted honest and fair with every one.

This is the most prosperous year the farmers of this county have experienced for many. When the last days of paying taxes came you didn't see them hauling in their produce and selling it at a reduced price, but they brought the cash, paid their taxes, and the most of them had some left.

Prof. Steed left for his home in Macon last Saturday, and Miss Merritt left for Gainesville on Monday, and all the students were let off on Saturday, a week earlier than fixed by the catalogue, to spend Christmas. It is a hard matter to hold the boys and girls when some of the teachers are permitted to go.

Capt. Williams is taking great interest in the establishment of the college dormitory. He says he does it solely for the benefit of the students and college, so as to reduce their expenses as much as possible. He also states that he will order their uniforms for them free of charge and save the boys the ten per cent commission, being about $1.60 on each suit.

Any person who will go to it right can make a good living by tilling the soil in Lumpkin county. Take as an illustration, Mr. John Stringer, who resides out in the eastern part. He made three trips to the west in search of a home. Finding no place that suited him he returned to Lumpkin and purchased a farm that had been run down. He went to work on the place and has it now in a high state of cultivation. Last year, among other products, he raised 200 or 300 bushels of sweet potatoes and got from $1.10 to $1.25 per bushel for them. This year he has raised four or five hundred bushels of potatoes, twelve or thirteen hundred bushels of corn, a number of bales of cotton and everything else that is produced on a farm here. Of course, it required many hard licks but no farmer can make a living any where without work.

The establishment of the dormitory has even invited the cooks, waiters and wood choppers.

Judge Evans requests us to state that the blanks for state pension are in Lumpkin county have been received and he is ready to begin filling them out after the first day of January.

From a Rural Mail Carrier.

Ed. NUGGET: Rural carrier on route 2, from Murrayville, Ga., finds that some people on this route don't know that it's against the law for the carrier to take up a letter on his route to be delivered some where else on his route without proper postage. This is strictly against the law. If the letter doesn't go fifty yards it's just two cents, and also any one riding with the carrier is forbidden. This has been tried on route 2 and the carrier refused to take letters to be delivered on his route without the proper postage.

Parter Spring News.

Well, the farmers are having a "hog killing time" now. J. M. Duckett killed two pigs netting 400 pounds.

If things doesn't change up here, there will be several weddings between now and Christmas, and from the way Squire Duckett was doing the other day he thinks that he will get the job. He had his derby in one hand and a piece of paper in the other, marrying a stump. Pretty good for the Squire.

Well, there is another old pensioner going to get into it some of these days. He is crossing the river too much. Better look out, old man, your wife may quit you and cause talk.

Rev. J. N. Austin's Appointments.

DEAR EDITOR: As your paper goes in every home, I think the best way to announce my appointments for 1906, as the past pastor failed, to give me a plan for the Lumpkin mission, is to put my appointments in THE NUGGET. Here they are: I will preach at Peck's Chapel Saturday before the first Sunday in January at 11 o'clock, and Sunday at 3 p. m. St. Paul 1st Sunday, 11 a. m. Rock Springs, Saturday before the 2nd Sunday, 11 a. m. Shady Grove, 2nd Sunday, 11 a. m. Jones Chapel, 2nd Sunday, 3 p. m. Aurora, 3rd Sunday, 11 a. m. Davis' Chapel, 3 p. m., 3rd Sunday. Soul's Chapel the 4th Sunday, 11 a. m.

J. N. AUSTIN, P. C.

Mender's Cheap Cash Store.

Having had to be away from our business in Dahlonega for a greater part of the last three weeks, we are glad to feel that our health has sufficiently been restored to permit us to return and give our personal attention to our store again. However, it is with pleasure that our customers have continued their very welcome patronage, which convinces us in our belief that Mr. Will Vaughn is polite and attentive, as well as honest with our customers and with us, and we have therefore employed Mr. Vaughn to remain in our employ and are sure he will give the public honest weights and measures. Whether you come to do your trading or send the little child, our firm's policy is to give the most goods of the quality requested that is possible for the amount of cash invested. We have one price only to all, whether you pay in produce or cash, and make it a specialty of ours that our price is as low as any other merchants and often lower.

We wish to thank each and every person who has made a purchase at our store in the past and extend a cordial invitation to every one to call and examine our goods and get our prices. We are now opening up our Christmas goods, and as usual, will sell them at a cut price. Come in to see us.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

WHO OWNS THE CENTRAL?
The Southern Does not And Cannot, Says President Spencer.

ATLANTA, Dec. 11.—Who owns the Central of Georgia Railway?

Three times this question has been before the Georgia Railroad Commission and every time the answer is the same—the re-organization committee of the Richmond Terminal Company.

Mr. Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern Railway, was questioned for two hours the other day by the railroad commission here and he gave the history of the Central's ownership in detail. Every company, of course, is owned by its stockholders. Back in 1887, a majority of the old Central's stock was bought by Pat Calhoun and associates. They sold it to another company, called the Georgia—not the Georgia Railroad, but the Georgia Company. This latter company was bought by the Richmond & West Point Terminal Company. In 1892, the Richmond Terminal went into receivership. Among its assets was the majority stock of the Central of Georgia.

In 1893, the Southern Railway was formed and it bought a large part of the Richmond Terminal's property. The Southern Railway Company, however, did not get possession or control of the Central's stock because there was very grave doubt about the owner, the Richmond Terminal, being able to give a title which would be good in Georgia.

So the Richmond Terminal's re-organization committee held on to the Central stock and still holds it.

Mr. Spencer said that the Southern does not own a share or a dollar's worth of anything in the central and never has controlled the Central. It is controlled absolutely by the President and directors who are selected by the voter of the Richmond Terminal's re-organization committee. Not one of the three members of the re-organization committee has any interest in the Southern Railway.

From Mr. Spencer's testimony, it appears that the Southern is in the position of a man who has bought a farm but cannot get title to it.

Mr. Spencer added that he did not think it would be good policy for the Southern to own the Central even if it were legal to do so. Major Hanson, President of the Central, testified that the road is operated as an independent property and competes with the Southern for business more sharply than with any other road.

If we look at our own natures, we shall see that all delight flows from activity in some form, and the more ardent the affections the greater the activity. The idea, therefore, that every one is to be initiated into some use is in accordance with all we know of man's nature. It is the Divine method of making human beings happy.—Giles.

The football game as practiced now, requires a hospital, a surgeon and oftentimes an undertaker. This may be healthy exercise, but looks more like a knock-down and drag-out fight. The college presidents will have to do about and reform or abolish the so-called sport.—Marietta Journal.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

SAME OLD KNOCKER.

Where is the man who was kicking for summer?

He who was fearful it wouldn't get warm.

Mail me a man who has dealt with a plumber.

Throwing bricks madly at each little stone.

Where is the fellow who kicked up the row?

Is he for certain enjoying it now?

Mercury now in its slender tube simmers;

Soon in a vapor 'twill float through the air.

Heat in the atmosphere glimmers and shimmers.

Roasting and frizzling and frying things there.

Where is the man who was hunting for this?

Fain would I find him and gaze on his bliss.

Pavements are hot as a city election;

Even the breezes are made of hot air;

Crystal clear ice is the only confection

That can find favor or lighten our care.

Still I am longing to look at the man—

He who was yearning for hammock and fan.

Listen; we'll tell you what's gone with the snow.

Just when the heat began doing its best

Out came his hammer, and, brisk as a tin-

He began knocking with vigor and zest.

There is a great enough dispute

Between Fourth of July and the football season

For the world to recuperate, so let us make the most of it.

There seems to be something of a rivalry

Between these two great American institutions

To see which can put out of business the greater number

Of young men in the least space of time,

And, although the football season is longer,

The Fourth of July is more intense while it lasts, and, as it has a greater range of age in which to work

On, its showing is not a mean one.

When proud man, who has brought the elements under subjection, so that he touches a button and tells them to make a thrashing machine or to clear house, has subdued the Fourth of July and the football season and made them harmless, he may well signal Mars that in his opinion the world is a planetary excretion would easily take the blue ribbon as some pumpkins.

Where laws forbid the cigarette

Some men at once a craving get

To smoke the paper pipes once more

Who hardly touched the things before.

Shy on Points.

"He has at least one good point."

"That must be when he is pointed in the opposite direction from me."

Cause For Expansion.

"He carries his business in his head."

"Most swell it up when he gets a few dollars."
